REFLECTION—MARRIAGE BUILDING

INITIATIVE: When couples rely on the grace of the Sacrament of Marriage, they are strengthened by God dwelling within them as a couple. They are more readily able to bear one another's burdens and deal with the inevitable frustrations and self-giving that marriage requires. When they have exhausted their own resources, they have God working for and with them!

A LETTER FROM THE OMASTA FAMILY:

Dear Visitation Parish:

Your generosity and kindness was deeply appreciated by the Omasta Family for the tremendous donation for our mother, Mary Omasta, at this difficult time of her life. Mary lost all of her possessions in a fire on April 11, 2012. We thought the parish would like to know that our mother's Bible and a picture of Saint Theresa did not burn in the fire. Our mother is still being treated at the hospital, and we trust in God's judgment to help her through this trying time. The Omasta family will keep the parish of Visitation Church in our thoughts and prayers. Thank you all, again, for your kindness and giving hearts. God Bless all of you.

The Omasta Family

BIRTHRIGHT—CARNATION SALE:

Thank you so much for your generous support of Birthright's Pro-Life mission. This year's Mother's Day Carnation Sale was a huge success because of your commitment to help encourage expectant women to choose life and avoid abortion. Thank you for celebrating LIFE with Birthright! God bless you all.
