WORLD MISSION SUNDAY—ONE SUNDAY FOR THE WORLD:

This day (October 19th) is set aside for Catholics worldwide to recommit themselves to the deepest identity of the church in mission through prayer and sacrifices. It is a reminder that we are “one family in mission.” In this “one family” some are called to go to the missions; others support the missions in prayer and financial support. Without both there would be no Mission Church. On this special day, let us keep missionaries and the mission church in our prayers. Please give in a spirit of generosity.
