The three magi from the East paid homage to the Infant Jesus with their "first fruits" of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

What gifts from my sustenance – and not my abundance – have I presented to the newborn Savior?

W. R. Hunt

The sun is just rising on the morning of another day, the first day of a new year.
What can I wish that this day, this year,
may bring to me?

Nothing that shall make the world or others poorer, nothing at the expense of other men; but just those few things which in their coming do not stop with me, but touch me rather, as they pass
and gather strength.

_ A few friends who understand me, and yet remain my friends.

_ A work to do which has real value without which the world would feel the poorer.

_ A return for such work small enough
not to tax unduly anyone who pays.

_ A mind unafraid to travel, even though the trail be not blazed.

_ An understanding heart.

_ A sight of the eternal hills and unresting sea and of something beautiful the hand of man has made.

_ A sense of humor and the power to laugh.

_ A little leisure with nothing to do.

_ A few moments of quiet,
silent meditation. The sense of the presence of God.

HAVE A BLESSED
NEW YEAR!

_ And the patience to wait for the coming of those things, and the wisdom to know them when they come.

A New Year Wish
