Christian stewards recognize that their "possessions" are only on loan from God. They recognize these gifts, cherish them, cultivate them and share them with others while "giving thanks always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." (Eph 5:20)

As each has received a gift, employ it for one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace.

Know Where Your Treasure Lies

When Saint Lawrence, a third-century deacon, was ordered by the prefect of Rome to hand over whatever wealth the early church had, Lawrence rounded up the poor and sick, presented them to the prefect, and announced, "These are the treasures of the church!" The poor and sick continue to be the church's greatest treasure. "In the poor and outcast," says Pope Francis, "we see Christ's face; by loving and helping the poor, we love and serve Christ." In your service to those in material need you will find your life's greatest riches.

"Where I am, there also will my servant be."

The Visitation Conference of St. Vincent de Paul would like to thank everyone for their very generous response to the children of Haiti.
