

CHRISTMAS DANCE

Tonight is the occasion of the senior Christmas dance, to be held from nine to twelve o'clock in the gymnasium.

Fremont Bearer's orchestra, well known and enjoyed by high school dancers, will play the music. Refreshments will be sold by the seniors during intermission. The price is fifty cents a couple or thirty-five per person.

Start Christmas vacation off right! Come to the Senior's Dance!

PITT PORTRAITS

Clarence Hammerle, of the class of '34, is placing the Men's Welfare Club of the local center in a position of prominence at the downtown college. "Hans," who is president of the organization, is making a very active club of a previously almost unheard of group. All the boys of the school are automatically members of the organization. The Men's Welfare Club, along with the W. S. G. A., is sponsoring the four major dances of the school this year.

Charles "Harpo" Miller of the class of '33 has been elected to serve as a representative of the Men's Welfare Club on a permanent dance committee which makes the plans for the four major dances.

John Werry, as chairman of the publicity committee of the Thanksgiving Dance, was aided during the advertising campaign by Louise Berkeley of the class of '33 and "Bill" Thomas of the class of '34.

Each day during the noon hour, Jack Benford, a W.-U. Y. alumnus of the class of '32, and Edward Kern, president of the class of '34, may be seen in a deserted classroom laboring feverishly over a text book. (It has been said, Miss Greer, that it may possibly be the study of the German language which so engages the boys.)

The date for the Pitt Christmas Dance has been set for December 22. The committees have been appointed, and if the affair is similar to the Thanksgiving Dance, the Panther steppers will have a highly successful evening. Approximately one hundred and fifty couples were in attendance at the "Turkey Brawl."

John Werry '34

FAREWELL ACTIVITIES HELD FOR TINSTMAN

The first farewell activity for Mrs. Carl Tinstman was held on Thursday, December 6, during the fifth period, in the high school dining room, where a delightful luncheon was given by Dorothy Bowser, Fern Rodgers, Frances Thomas and Dorothy Yanker. Dorothy Bowser gave an informal talk which expressed the girls' appreciation of Mrs. Tinstman's work and the girls' regrets at losing her as a teacher. Lunch consisted of ice-cream, cake, and tea.

On December 12 the cafeteria did a thriving business, when the ladies of the faculty and office stayed for lunch in order to present a gold and blue woolen comfort to Mrs. Tinstman.

Mrs. Tinstman was married during the Thanksgiving holidays and does not expect to return to her position after Friday, December 21.

BOB MERCER ESCAPES BY THICKNESS OF A BOOK

Bob Mercer is apparently favored by the gods. A few days ago, while enroute to school from his home on the Diamond Boulevard, he encountered one of the menaces of the highway, an intoxicated driver. The fender of the car came so close to Bob as to knock a schoolbook, which he was carrying, out of his hand. The car then, without so much as stopping, drove on up the boulevard. A short distance farther on it crashed into a more formidable object, a truck. Speak of your close shaves! That was one for the books.

STUDENTS VACATIONING OUT OF JOHNSTOWN

With the Christmas holidays almost a thing of the present, everyone is somewhat excited. It seems that the ancient theory of a merry Yuletide spent around one's own hearth is no longer applicable in some cases.

The Daley's will spend their vacation gaping at New York skyscrapers, and Bob Dannies will accompany his sister back to the same great metropolis to be with his family. Marjorie Evans, with her family is planning to visit her grandparents in New Kensington for a short time. Merle Woods is also waiting to return to his beloved city, Chicago, as soon as possible. Many good old friends will be awaiting Ackley's return to their former home in Sunbury.

MEN'S CLUB HOLDS SECOND MEETING

Lay Plans for Future

On Thursday, December 13, the second meeting of the men teachers in the Westmont-Upper Yoder school district was held in the high school gymnasium. Following a suggestion by Mr. Ackley, these gatherings are to be held twice a month to bring about a friendly relationship between the men instructors. Bridge, bowling, basketball, and volleyball are some of the diversions which will be enjoyed by these teachers during the winter, but in the summer plans are proposed for hikes, overnight trips, and other interesting excursions.

THREE NEW ADDITIONS MADE TO YODLER STAFF

Three new members have been added to the Yodler staff, primarily because of their outstanding work in English composition. Elizabeth Thomas and "Bob" Mercer, sophomores, have received recognition because of their exceptional ability in literary work and have been added to the Literary Department of the Yodler.

Janet Trefts, a junior, has been added to the Human Interest Department. Janet has shown great interest in various fields of Yodler editorship.

SANTA COMES WITH A BANG

"Twas the night before Christmas
And all through the house,
Not a creature was stirring,
Not even a mouse,

And the Family were all in
A slumber so sweet—

There was a shuffling sound on the roof and a little old man with a brown bag over his shoulder slid quietly down the chimney. He entered the room and found a large decorated tree (evidently the family did not believe in Santa), but it did not matter to the little old man. He shook the snow from his coat and made sure every one was fast asleep. He then went for the presents in the small boxes on the table, which were probably jewelry. He stuffed them into the bag over his shoulder and then went for the silver in the cupboard in the dining room. After his bag was filled he heard a noise in the hall. The family was up. He pulled a gun from his pocket. Bang, bang it went. He skampered up the chimney and made off into the night.

BERKLEY WINS DECISION OVER DANNIES

Popularity Contest In Grade School

Every football player is put to the "test" at least once during the season by his feminine admirers, and if he can stand the "gaff" he takes his place in the A 1 class. This continual "hashing" and "rehashing" is expected to be prevalent in the high school but when it begins to occur in the grade school it becomes a serious problem—at least to the players concerned. Incidentally we have chosen an example to prove our point.

It happened that "Bob" Dannies was the "chosen advertisement" for the senior play in the 6th grade at the Tigra Street school. As "Bob" came into the assigned room, the teacher was very much amused to notice that the face of each little girl became crimson with pleasure. Being very much attracted by the complete ecstasy of Clara Ann Thomas at the time, the teacher made the following mention:

Teacher: When "Bob" came into the room, you appeared to be exceptionally delighted, Clara Ann. Is he your secret passion?

Clara Ann Thomas (greatly embarrassed): Oh, what makes you think so?

Teacher: I was just wondering. Clara Ann: Oh, he's all right, but I think Berkeley's nicer.

According to Mr. Seigel, "such popularity should be deserving."

ACTIVITIES ASSOCIATION TO HAVE CONSTITUTION

Mary Edith Crichton, Robert McEldowney, and Carmon Berkeley were appointed by Mr. Tombl to meet with three faculty members for the purpose of drawing up a code or constitution for the Activities Association. The teachers have not yet been chosen.

M. J. McCULLIFF TAKES REST CURE

Some doctors advised three doses of pink pills a day. Mary Jane McCulliff's doctor further prescribed no books, no studies, and absolutely no school work. Mary Jane is suffering from over exertion and mental strain and must have complete rest. Even though she doesn't feel up to scratch, she's the envy of the whole school.

THE YODLER

Published by the Junior Class of the
Westmont-Upper Yoder High School
Johnstown, Pennsylvania

Member of the Pennsylvania School
Press Association

Yearly subscription, ten copies25
Single mimeograph copies01
Double mimeograph copies03

Editor-in-Chief Lucille Wainger
Managing Editor Jeannette Neafach
Head News Editor Betty Boyle
Assembly Editor Annette Metzner
Administration Editor Anne Moore
Class Editor Natalie Augustine
School Activities Editor

Bettyrose Stambach
Literary Editor Betty Williams
Humor Editor James Ogile
Human Interest Editor..... Patricia Waters
Boys' Sports Editor Harry Allendorfer
Girls' Sports Editor Thelma Price
Art Editors

Perry Hershberger, George Ling
Exchange Editor Louisa Claffin
Proof Reader Lillian Popovich
Business Manager Robert McEldowney
Head Typist Pauline Bowman
Faculty Advisor Miss Esenwein

CHRISTMAS AT MY HOUSE

Bells, wreaths, smuggled packages, trees, and carols announce to the world that Christmas has come. I, however, always know of it when early one cold, misty morning my covers are pulled off and my brother's small voice asks me to come and see what Santa has brought. What a beginning for so merry a day! Cold, tired, dejected, half awake, I climb out of my warm bed and struggle into my clothes.

The first thing my brother and I see as we round a turn in the stairs is the tree. Proudly it stands covered with balls and tinsel. Bright lights wind in and out through the greenery, reflecting themselves grotesquely on the shiny shores. Crowning all is a hugh silver star that shows on its radiant surface a picture of the scene. No wonder fairy tales say trees long to be Christmas trees; if only we too could be so glorious.

Then we see the presents! How we scramble to get them! Games, toys, and clothes are torn out of boxes and examined with delight. Overlooking the ribbons that tie them we rip the smartly patterned paper from gifts from friends.

Toys, candy, and paper are scattered knee deep on the floor. Through this jumble we scramble to get to the stuffed stockings, that always have a hugh orange in the toe.

My brother leaves for the pantry to eat the cookies and candy. He always manages to get a stomach ache on every holiday.

Our hearts bubble enthusiastically, for Christmas has come at last, and what other day can rival the sheer, delicious beauty of this one.

Attention Upper Classmen!

A senior girl was heard saying, "I never enjoy the dances any more because so few people attend, and those that do are mostly under classmen". Does not this startling statement make you wonder?

Do you realize that up until the last two years sponsoring the school dances was an excellent means of gaining financial aid, a condition which at present is not true? Why is it that the upper classmen do not attend the dances? They surely know the necessity of having a large crowd. Must new organizations always be founded to reduce prices, or contests always started to give free admissions to coax enough students to attend?

School dances are for all classes, and if favorable results are to be obtained, more school spirit and a greater attendance is needed.

SANTA PRESCRIBES

Since so many sniffles and coughs are going around our school, Santa Claus has sent a prescription to all of us on, "How to Avoid Christmas Colds."

When the first sign of sniffles come, go to the medicine closet and get out the family's favorite pink pills. Take one every three hours with luke warm water. When you fell your cold getting better run upstairs and down the cellar in your bare feet. Mother will find your head getting hot and the sniffles increasing; therefore she will tuck you in bed and say, "No school for Mother's darling tomorrow."

When you are snuggled in your bed with a hot water bottle at your feet and an oversized bottle of "Cough syrup" at your side, think of the boys and girls at school without colds. They're careful to wear shoes, rubbers and hats every day and then they'll be well for their Christmas vacation and dear old Santa Claus.

OTHER SCHOOL
PUBLICATIONS

Most readers of the Yodler are supposedly interested in other school papers of the immediate vicinity.

Franklin High's paper is published by a Press Club each month, and one copy, free of charge, is given to each person in school.

The junior class of Southmont High School issues a seventeen page mimeographed paper called the "Panorama Junior," which sells for five cents a copy or seven copies for thirty-five cents.

The Commercial Department of the Catholic High School edits a single sheet once a month. Conemaugh does not publish a school paper.

Fendale's "Courier" publishes all news in a special column in "The Tribune."

HONOR STUDENTS CHOSEN
FOR THE SECOND MARKING
PERIOD ENDING NOV. 26

Seniors

No.	A's	No.	B's
Wade Ackley	2	3	3
Robert Dannies	2	2	2
Isabelle Devaux	2	2	3
Janet Geist	3	3	2
Dorothy Getty	3	3	2
Kathryn McCauliff	3	3	1
Elaine Parks	4	4	4
Russel Yost	5	5	5

Juniors

Natalie Augustine	3	2
Louisa Claffin	4	1
Ruth Hand	2	2
Lillian Popovich	2	3
Rose M. Reddinger	3	2
Janet Trefis	3	1
Sophomores
Nancy Cohoe	3	2
Anna Ferg	2	3
Jane Kintner	3	2
Helen Melldowney	4	1
Robert Mercer	2	3
Freshmen
Sara Brickner	3	1
Howard Ideson	2	2
Dorothy Pklovsky	2	3
Leah Rodstein	4	4
Sara Waters	4	3

This roll carries names of all pupils who have received at least two A's and two or three B's. A mark of C will keep a name from the roll. This honor roll is not to be confused with the National Honor Roll which will be announced at the end of the senior year, and which is based on scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

SENIOR PLAY
POST MORTEM

"The return of Peter Grimm" was known to bring tears to the eyes of many. (Is that right, Miss Neafach?)

Mr. Jahn insists that Russel Yost is a second David Warfield.

At the entrance of Doctor MacPherson, some people began wondering when Mr. Nelson El-sasser had enrolled in our high school.

We were glad to see our former and much missed classmate, Virginia Strandquest, in the audience.

The stage manager announces that, to date, some one-hundred people have asked where the actors went when they reached the top of the stairway. Well, that stairway is due for a great many more years yet, and every class will have a chance to find out what happens.

Barbara Montgomery is still in a collapse because no lines were forgotten.

DECEMBER PERIODICALS

If, during the holiday vacation, you do not know what to do with your spare time, go to the library. Many interesting Christmas articles in magazines found here will amuse, entertain, and give you food for thought.

In the "Atlantic Monthly," Henry Williamson has given a short description of a Christmas at the Front during the World War and other Christmases of the recent past. He tells how one family will spend this Christmas Day. His outlook is optimistic in his article, "Christmas."

Stanton M. Meyer tells a story of "Blenod Christmas" in "The St. Nicolas." It is a story of how a young American soldier made a forgotten little French boy and girl happy on Christmas Day during the World War. In this magazine useful suggestions for Christmas gifts will be found in the section called "Toy and Gift Fair."

"Meet Square Jaw, the toughest Santa in the West." This is the explanation given of "The Sandy Claus Bust," by Gilbert A. Lanthrop, in the "American Boy." It is the story of a rough railroad engineer who, with the aid of a young assistant, played Santa to four wistful children.

"Christmas on the Range," also in "American Boy," is a clever poetical version of a new Santa Claus.

There are a number of interesting articles and stories relating to Christmas found in the library and a demand for entertainment can be well fulfilled.

JUNIORS READ ESSAYS

To the fourth period English class, the month of December has brought many important essays and essays to light. Through the courtesy of the library, the juniors have been able to obtain a wide field of reading among famous authors: Bacon, Lamb, De Quincey, Carlyle, Ruskin, Emerson, Hazlitt, Arnold, Stevenson, Morley, Tanner, and Van Dyke. Mary Jane McCauliff and Elaine Parks read and reported upon the most essays, Mary Jane having read one hundred and Elaine Parks, seventy-six.

ATHLETICS

PRESENTING—

The seven men who do a lion's share of the work but get an ant's share of the credit, the linemen of Westmont-Upper Yoder's undefeated football team.

"Bob" Beam, the end who spent most of his time in the other team's backfield.

"Web" Shomo, the other end, who, like a state policeman, always "got his man."

"Johnny Sisk, the tackle who went down under punts like a streamlined freight train.

"Pete" White, the other tackle who made life tough for any one who got in his way.

"Wells" Strelein, the guard who can best be compared to a stone wall.

"Bill" Schneck, the other guard who, when running interference certainly did interfere. (with opponents, of course).

"Bob" Dannies, the center who went to town on the whole opposing team from end to end and back again.

FOOTBALL PHENOMENA

Fifteen players and one manager of this year's football squad will graduate in June, leaving twenty-five players and six managers for next year.

Carmon Berkley wore his green victory shirt to the football banquet. Not to be outdone, most of the other members wore green shirts and ties. John Grove even came in a green car.

During intermission, between the dinner and the speeches at the banquet, several of the boys found time hanging heavily on their hands, so they marked the sugar cubes as dice and had a game, spoons and toothpicks being at stake.

In the picture in the Tribune, the boys looked as though they were ready to "chew some one up". This was because one of their happy practices had been interrupted by the mean old photographer.

"Bob" Crichton and Mr. Seigel drove to Pittsburgh for the speaker and honor guests of the banquet.

The school will be awarded a trophy for being runner up in the Western Pennsylvania Football Conference.

Altoona, winner of the western division of the conference, tied Bethlehem, winners of the eastern division, 13-13. W.-U. Y. tied Windber, Windber tied Altoona, and Altoona tied Bethlehem.

So what!

TO MISS LOHR

Fifty girls reported for basketball at the call of the new coach, Miss Lohr. After several eliminations, about twenty girls remained and show promise of a strong team. The girls' squad appreciates the work of the new coach, who is giving her entire time into molding a successful basketball team.

Miss Lohr is a graduate from our own high school and played on the undefeated team of 1926. She later attended Lock Haven State Teachers' College, where she was among the few girls who earned their letters and sweaters for basketball.

GOLD FOOTBALLS AS AWARDS TO PLAYERS

Because of the fact that they went through the season undefeated, a record seldom achieved by a team, the members of the football team will each receive a small gold football in addition to the customary sweater awards.

Certificates for the footballs and sweaters were presented to the players at the football banquet Tuesday, December 11, by Mr. Arthur James of the W.-U. Y. School Board.

Those who received the awards are: Carmon //Berkley, Robert Beam, John Sisk, Walter Strelein, Robert Dannies, Bill Schneck, Peter White, Wilbur Shomo, Arthur Zimmer, Stephen Bezeck, Raymond Spuhler, John Grove, Peter Kasonavich, Paul Schwab, Edward Smith, Ross Benchhoff, William Statler, and Joseph Williams.

HOLIDAY MOVIE SCHEDULE

Advance information from local movie houses has been made special to the Yodler for its patrons. During the holidays all members of the family can enjoy themselves at any movie house in town.

If grandpa wants to have another look at the old West he should see George O'Brien in "Dude Ranger" at the Embassy on December 23-24. You who have-younger brothers who crave action might suggest John Wayne in a Western thriller on the 22nd or "Paradise Valley" on 28th and 29th at the Ritz.

All lovers of action, young or old, will enjoy seeing James Cagney in "Jimmy the Gent" and also "Flaming Signals" at the Ritz on Christmas day. Maybe your Chinese cook, if you have one, will enjoy "Chu Chin Chow" at the Ritz during the holidays.

Now you fellows who have girl-friends who crave love, romance, (in the way of movies) here is a tip. At the Cambria on Christmas day the picture "Little Minister" will start. This features that great actress, Katharine Hepburn, with John Beal.

Now I wish to bring to your attention a picture for all from grandma down and from baby up. At the Embassy, starting on Christmas, is darling Shirley Temple in "Bright Eyes," with lovely James Dunn. Don't miss this. Mothers of children who see the State will have a hard time sewing buttons the day after Christmas, for none other than Laurel and Hardy will be there in "Babes in Toyland".

THIRTY CANDIDATES ANSWER FLOOR CALL

Last Year's Team Returns

About 30 experienced candidates, including five varsity men of last year, report for the first basketball practice Monday, December 3.

Although they have a hard schedule ahead of them, the team is expected to be unusually good this year because of the fact that only one member of last year's squad, Alfred Sobidich, was lost by graduation.

The varsity men returning are Stitt, Berkley, Grove, Spuhler, and Zimmer. In addition to these there is a wealth of material "coming-up" from the lower classmen.

The schedule, which includes ten tri-county games and six others, not counting the alumni game to be played Friday evening, December 28, is as follows:

Fri., Dec. 28—Alumni, at home
 Fri., Jan. 4—Johnstown Catholic, at home
 Fri., Jan. 11—Windber, at home
 Fri., Jan. 18—Altoona, away
 Tues., Jan. 29—Portage, away
 Fri., Feb. 8—Altoona, at home
 Sat., Feb. 9—Allegheny, away
 Tues., Feb. 12—Johnstown Catholic, away
 Tues., Feb. 12—Johnstown Catholic, away
 Fri., Feb. 15—Johnstown, at home
 Fri., Feb. 22—Ferndale, away
 Sat., Feb. 23—Franklin, at home
 Tues., Feb. 26—Portage, at home
 Sat., Mar. 5—Franklin, away

CHRISTMAS PARTY GIVEN BY GIRLS

A number of girls from high school belonging to the Westminster Girls' Club of the Westmont Presbyterian church are giving a party for some little children of the Christian Home next week. Stockings filled with candy and toys will be given to each one.

The girls from high school participating in this party are: Ruth Davis, Betty Hershberger, Betty Lou Rinebold, Lois Moore, Betty Myers, freshmen; Nancy Cohoe, Helen McEldowney, Helen Kerr, Mary Edith Crichton, Betty Mason, Ann Ferg, sophomores; Betty Williams, Marjorie Evans, Anne Moore, juniors; Letabeth Benedict, Dorothy Getty, Roberta McIntyre, seniors.

SCHOOL GOES ON

Miss Greer's two German classes have been learning to sing Christmas carols in German. If anyone goes by German class, sweet music may be enjoyed, despite the fact that the Deutsch may sound Greek to them.

"Macbeth" is being dramatized by Miss Esenwein's fourth period English class.

Miss Kantner's freshmen English classes have been organized in order to carry on public speaking. This plan is to make the freshmen better speakers by the time they are juniors and seniors. (Could it be those present examples that made this necessary.)

"A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens, printed in Gregg Shorthand has been read in Miss Landis' second year shorthand class.

The first year shorthand class has been writing Christmas songs in shorthand to get practice in using the diphthongs.

Freshmen Latin students have been roused to a point of anxiety about Miss Wyrman's promise of a winter hike. The date has not yet been decided, but the students are eager to go.

ALUMNI CHAT

George Statler, Edward Hoffman, and Thomas Whitten returned to Johnston the weekend of the 14th after the formal Christmas dinner and dance at State.

Kathryn Rodgers, a sophomore at Hood College, comes home today and expects to go to Baltimore sometime during vacation to attend a dance.

Philip Price, a student at Exeter Academy, is spending a few days in New York City before coming home.

Mary Louise Maxwell, Anna Mae Campbell, and Arlene Miller will arrive home today from Indiana State Normal.

Marjorie Dodson and Phyllis Englehart are working in the Penn Traffic Toy Department during Christmas rush.

Charlotte Singer and Helen Davis will stay at Grove City College until after the Home Coming Dance.

Gordon Evans came back last Tuesday. Gordon is a member of the band and orchestra at Mercersburg.

Jane Boyle will attend the Christmas Dance at Seton Hill before returning home.

Margaret Williams, studying at Beaver College, was the only Freshman to receive an "A" in English.

Harvey Grazier, a student at the University of Vermont, comes home the 23rd. He belongs to Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, a national social fraternity.

Louis Foy is spending Christmas vacation with Mary Louise Walker at St. Petersburg, Florida.

Margaret and Anne Waters returned home around the fourteenth.

MISS ROBERTA WILLIAMS PRESENTED WITH PURSE

During the sophomore class meeting on December 3, in the gymnasium, Miss Roberta Williams, a new faculty member, was presented with a pocketbook from the class, appropriated by them in appreciation for the splendid assistance she gave in managing the Book Week program.

The purse was a lovely brown one of rough cloth decorated only with three initials, R. R. W. in silver, and a silver knob.

HUMOR

SANTA CLAUS IS TO BRING:

Bill Statler—a new appendix. Miss M. Greer—An orchid for her capable direction of the senior play. "Wade" Ackley—a pair of slits.

Hi-Y Club—more conferences. "Da" Kuntz—Substitute for Dannies while he's in New York. Barney Bowser—A few more silk handkerchieves.

Anne Gardner and Howard Idson—A tandem bicycle. Miss Wyman—A nice day for her picnic.

Bill Stitt—A Roman collar. Percy Hershberger—A new supply of movie magazines. Coach Engh—A basketball team as successful as the recent football eleven.

SLIPS THAT PASS IN 206

Miss Williams: What made Francis I famous? Jane Blough: His marriage to Mary Brian.

Miss Williams: Define the Estates General. Herman Felt: A general of a large tract of land.

Miss Williams: Whom did Constance marry? Betty Mason: Frederick I. Miss Williams: No, she didn't marry him. Betty Mason: Oh, no, he married her.

Miss Williams: Where was Erasmus educated? Betty Neafach: Harvard.

Attend the

ALUMNI

GAME

Dec. 28

You might get along without the holly on Christmas, but my friends, you must have the berries.

If you can't sleep on Christmas, try lying on the edge of the bed—then you might drop off.

And don't write Aunt Susan and tell her how sorry you are you couldn't send a present because you lost her address.

Grouchy husband (after enjoying two helpings of pudding). What sort of pudding is this.

Florence: It's plum pudding, Edward.

Edward: Thunder and lightning! You know I don't like plum pudding and yet you insist on giving it to me every little while.

"Mamma, we ought to wake daddy."

"Why, dear?" "He has gone to sleep without his sleeping powder."

Hubby (after Christmas shopping): "The bank has returned that check. Wife: Isn't that splendid! What can we buy with it this time?"

David Elasser: I just wrote a book. "What 20,000,000 Women Want."

Bob Crichton: Did you spell my name right?

What kind of money talks? Sound money.

A coach is a fellow who is always ready to lay down your life for his school.

Mr. Belles: "Where did you learn to add? This sum should be 123 and you have it as 89." Bright Trig-Student: "Yes, sir, I used to be a caddy."

Anna Mary Raab: Does the announcement of a short teacher's meeting mean only short teachers may come, or a short meeting?

Robert Hoerle will take subscriptions for any magazine. Room 203.

For Sale — Chickens, live weight at $.20 per lb. Inquire Wilbur Mishler, Room 206.

WINNIE WEST

Dear Winnie West:

I seem to have gotten into a lot of trouble by accepting a certain bid to the Thanksgiving dance. Can you tell me how I can refrain from causing more? Sara Lou Daley

Dear Sara Lou:

A "Bar net" may save you from "Wade" ing into deep water.

W. W.

Dear Winnie West:

I have been pondering for weeks over a Christmas gift for my hero. I can't imagine what would be appropriate.

Helen McElidowney

Dear Helen: St. "Nick" carries a plentiful supply of "Coats."

W. W.

Dear Winnie West:

My boy friend and I have been having a few quarrels lately. I'm terribly worried. Can you tell me what I can do about it?

Anne Gardner

Dear Anne: "I'd a son" who acted just as obstinate. He'll get over it.

W. W.

Dear Winnie West:

I am having a hard time attracting the attention of a certain boy in physic's class. Can you give me any advice

F. Barnett

Dear Fredericka:

"Seese" appearing to be so affected, Arche may become interested.

W. W.

For Sale — Subscriptions for "Hunting and Fishing" and "National Sportsman" magazines. Seibert Meyer, Room 203.

For Sale—Pen and pencil set in green or yellow for $.79. Inquire room 203, Jack McIssac. (Anyone selling six will receive a set free.)

For Sale — Christmas cards at $1 a box. See Sammy Nolan, Room 206.