

GIRLS' BASKETBALL SQUAD ORGANIZED W.-U. Y. AND WINDBER TO CLASH TONIGHT

IN CONFERENCE GAME

JEANNETTE WEAFACH MANAGER

PLAY PRELIMINARY TONIGHT

The girls' basketball squad has now been organized so that the girls will play the second preliminary to the Windber game this evening.

Dorothy Cornelius has been elected as captain of the team. By faculty election, Jeanette Weafach is manager with Jane Kintner as assistant.

This game is the third one played by the team, having once defeated Cochran Junior High and once lost to the alumni sextet.

FACULTY OF W.-U. Y. MAY PRODUCE PLAY

A well founded rumor has it that the faculty of our school are thinking of producing a play. This will be an entertainment never before enjoyed by the school, and the student body will anxiously await the performance.

WINDBER TEAM PERSONALITIES DISCUSSED OVER THE LINES

Our sports reporter had the following telephone talk with Walter Pinchell of Windber two days ago about the Windber basketball players, at a cost of 15¢ to the reporter.

Reporter: The kind of news we want, Walter is just plain "dope" about your fellows.

Pinchell: Well, you are probably acquainted with our guard "Billy" Manatti, who was a backfieldman in the football team. He is one of our most popular boys, and still is not a "ladies' man."

Reporter: He must be popular.

Pinchell: Through "Andy" Sendeck, a first class dignified senior, he still reads all "Shadow Detective Stories" he can get his hands on.

Reporter: Wasn't he an end in football?

Pinchell: Yes, most of the boys on our team were. "Bill" Farkas, the center, was a backfieldman.

John "Feverhouse" Carliss and "Chippy" Depold, forwards are both popular boys. Depold is a sophomore and Carliss is "that very" about a certain Dolly of the girls' team. We have a Garceina on our team, the one who played football this year, not last.

Reporter: Thank you. May the best team win.

GIRLS' TEAMS IN PRELIMINARY

The W.-U. Y. basketball team will play its first conference game this evening when it meets the Windber High squad in the Westmont-U. Y. floor.

The game will be a miniature of the Windber-W.-U. Y. football game played several months ago, inasmuch as four men from each team were varsity members of the football teams.

There will be two preliminary games, the first between the junior varsities of the schools at 6:00 o'clock and the second between the girls' teams of the two schools at 7:00 o'clock.

The starting line-ups for the varsity game will be:

W.-U. Y.	Windber
Borkley	Sendeck
Zimmer	Depold
Stitt	Farkas
Grove	Manotti
Spuhler	Carliss

OFFICIAL NOTES

The students of Westmont-Upper Yoder High School are very fortunate in having such a talented principal and supervising principal.

Few students knew that Mr. Ackley sang until he surprised us by singing two very appropriate numbers in assembly last Friday: "Tommy Lad", dedicated to the boys, and (as the girls' blushed) "I Love You Truly". He was accompanied by his wife, also a talented musician.

Although most students knew that Mr. Belles played the "fiddle," few knew that he sang and whistled so admirably. Miss Wyman is also to be commended in her good work in "tickling the ivories."

The student body wishes to thank Mr. Ackley for his solos and sincerely hopes to be entertained by Mr. Belles and Miss Wyman for leading the delightful hour.

MEN OF FACULTY HOLD MEETING

The male faculty members had a meeting this week at the home of Mr. Ott. The meeting was social, and so games and singing constituted most of the club entertainment. The purpose of the club is to create a more friendly faculty group.

Joe: My dad blames me for the three blowouts we had on our trip.
Jack: Was he angry?
Joe: No, I patched things up.

Mr. Belles: If you add seventy-six thousand, nine hundred and twenty-three to eighty-one thousand, four hundred and twelve, what will you get?
Mary Jane: A wrong answer.

He; Joe's educating his money.
She: How's that?
He: He's making every cent count.

"With a little thinking I managed to win ten dollars at bridge."
"Beginner's luck."
"Why, I've been playing bridge for years."
"I meant the thinking part of it."

"You know, last year the doctor told me if I didn't stop smoking I'd be feeble-minded."
"Why didn't you stop?"

"That's my uncle."
"On your father's side or mother's side?"
"Oh! he sticks up for both."

Merle Woods: Do you object to kissing?
Jeannette N: That's something I never do.
Merle: Kiss?
Jeannette: No, object.

"I think there's something wrong with you."
"Yes, but I keep it under my hat."

Teacher: Tell me, William, why do they use knots on the ocean instead of miles?
Bill R.: Because they have to keep the ocean "tide."

FIVE CENTS

The Montpelier Club of which Clarence ("Here-it-is-what-is-it") Hamble is president, has taken over the duties of many inter-annual sports.

Son: Dad, I just seen.....
Dad: Son, where is your grammar?
Son: That's what I'm trying to tell you. I just seen her at the barber shop getting her hair bobbed.

Mr. Mardis: That time did you get in last night?
Johnny: A quarter of twelve
Mr. Mardis: I heard the clock strike three.
Johnny: Three is a quarter of twelve.

MISS FRANCES WITT IS NEW W.-U. Y. TEACHER

Miss Frances Witt, new teacher of home economics, is a graduate of Hood College, and served as dietitian at the Dairy Dell (previous to her position here.)

Miss Witt, who is taking Mrs. Tinsman's position, resides in Johnston.

The members of the faculty and student body extend to her a hearty welcome.
