

SUPPORT
TRACK TEAM

The Yodler

OF

WESTMONT-UPPER YODER HIGH SCHOOL

ATTEND
JUNIOR
PLAY

APRIL 23, 1936

ALWAYS THE MOST OF THE BEST FOR THE LEAST

VOLUME 7, ISSUE 9

TEACHERS ARE RE-ELECTED FOR 1936-37 TERM

At a joint school board meeting held in the high school building, March 16, the following high school teachers were reelected for the term 1936-1937: Misses Canan, science; Esenwein, English; Elizabeth Greer, history; Margaret Greer, German; Hirsch, art; Kantner, French; Landis, shorthand; McGann, English; Reiser, history; Josephine Williams, mathematics; Roberta Williams, Latin; Witt, home economics; and Messers Belles, principal; Eng, bookkeeping; Horner, music; McIlhany, business arithmetic; Ott, chemistry; Rabb, history; and Miss Lonsbery, school nurse. Miss Raab and Miss Finklestein were rehired as secretaries.

Cat and the Canary To Be Given May 15th

Rehearsals Held Daily

The date for the junior class play, "The Cat and the Canary", to be given in the high school auditorium, has been chosen as Friday, May 15.

The play, a melodrama in three acts written by John Willard, plants the seeds of its thrilling plot early in the first act. The plot centers about the young heiress of the West estate, whom jealous relatives attempt to prove insane, in order that she be deprived of her fortune. Permeating through the play are claw-like hands, secret doors, lunatics, fainting, screams, a murder, and a romance.

The cast in order of appearance is: Edward Depp as Roger Crosby, old Mr. West's lawyer; Anna Ferg as Mamma Pleasant, the old negress house-keeper; David Greenberg as Harry Blythe, of the gentlemen "heavy"; type who is in love with Annabelle West; Elizabeth Thomas, as the sharp-tongued Susan Sillsby; Beatrice May, the more quiet Cleily Young; Thomas Rial as the suave, handsome, Charlie Wilder, also in love with Annabelle; Freeman Fullerton as the timid, frightened Paul Jones, in love with Annabelle since his youth; Nancy Cohoe as Anna-

(Continued on Page 3)

VIRGINIA L. WRIGHT TO READ POEMS AT STATE FINALS

Virginia Wright, having won first place in the Forensic League Poetry Reading contest over five contestants at Juniata College, Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, will enter the state finals at Pottsville, April 24, at 2:30. Virginia will read three poems: "God's World," "Travel," and "Ashes of Life," by Edna St. Vincent Millay.

This is the first time in the history of the high school that any person in the oral expression work has won the district contest and thus qualified to go to the finals.

Senior Class To Present Principles of Education Commencement Night

All Seniors to Take Part

The senior class was informed, at a class meeting Wednesday, April 15, of the plans for their commencement exercises to be held on the evening of June 12. Miss Esenwein, general chairman, explained the theme for the pageant "The Seven Cardinal Principles of Education," which is to be presented in seven scenes as the main interest of the program.

Each member of the senior class will take part in these episodes to be directed by members of the faculty: Health and Safety, Miss Elizabeth Greer and Mr. Eng; Worthy Home Membership, Miss Witt and Miss Josephine Williams; Mastership of Tools, Miss Margaret Greer and Miss Roberta Williams; Citizenship and World Goodwill, Mr. Raab and Mr. Seigle; Vocational and Economic Effectiveness, Miss Landis and Mr. McIlhany; Wise Use of Leisure, Miss Kantner; and Ethical Character, Miss Reiser and Mr. Belles.

These teachers will be assisted by Mr. Horner, music; Miss Hirsch, art; and Mr. Ott, stage.

1,011 invitations were ordered for the senior commencement, or an average of 11 6-7 per pupil.

Seven W. U. Y. Students Enter State Finals In Musical Events

Seven contestants will represent W. U. Y. H. S. in the District Forensic League Music contest to be held April 25 at Pottsville, Pennsylvania. They are Charles Cook, clarinet; Doris Fox, trombone; Sara Jane Waters, flute; Virginia Wright, oboe; and Olga Yarotsky, Joan Maiorana, Helen Kerr, piano trio.

Sara Jane and Doris won the right to continue by winning first place in their departments at the competitions at Ebensburg and State College.

The trio, clarinet solo, and oboe solos have had no competition as yet.

The events will occur as follows:

Friday:
9:00 A. M. Flute solo, Sara Jane Waters.
Trombone Solo—Doris Fox.
7:00 P. M. Piano Trio—Olga Yarotsky, Joan Maiorana, Helen Kerr.
Saturday:
9:00 A. M. Clarinet Solo, Charles Cook. Oboe Solo, Virginia Wright.

Girls Introduce Riding Club To W. U. Y.

Under the direction of Miss Catherine Reiser, history teacher, and Mr. Charles Becker, former riding master at the Merrywood School, Greenwich, Connecticut, a girls' riding club has been formed. Its members will be given instructions in horsemanship at the Johnstown Riding Academy beginning next week. This is the first time the high school has had such a club.

The girls are divided into two groups, the beginners and advanced. The beginners, who plan to ride Friday evenings are: Rosalie Chaplin, Betty Conrad, Jane Conrad, Claire Hess, Patty Stambach, Betty Succop, and Elizabeth Thomas. The advanced are: Betty Glosser, Barbara Henderson and Laura Yost. Miss Kantner and Miss Tarr will accompany these advanced riders, who will go out on Wednesdays. Miss Reiser says, "Riding is not only a real pleasure, but is also beneficial to the health. It develops nerve and self-confidence and is a great help to the timid soul."

CAMPAIGNS TO CLIMAX WITH RALLY IN GYM

Friday, April 24, the gym will be the scene of a large political rally, directed by Miss Reiser. The purpose of the rally is the presentation of the candidates and their platforms for the presidency of student council. Miss Reiser will conclude the daily series of broadcasts on "How to Vote" by giving a talk Tuesday morning.

The date for the voting is April 28, the same day as the State primaries. The balloting will be done at noon in the gymnasium. Numbered ballots will be secured by freshmen and sophomores at a table in the south side of the "gym," and by juniors and seniors in the north side. Dorothy Kull and Sanford Blough will be in charge of the former group; Jean Barnhart and Bob Wagner, of the latter.

Secret voting will be done, voters retaining their ballot numbers and registering any suspicion of their vote having been changed. Ballots will be deposited in a box, to be counted by the Judge of Elections and five assistant judges who will act as tellers.

The candidates for election are Mary Edith Crichton, Nancy Cohoe, Freeman Fullerton, Herman Strelein and Harry Tredennick. Their campaign managers are Eugene Suto, James Ogle, Charles Suppes, Percy Hershberger and Jack Lindeman, respectively.

Harry Allendorfer Wins Scholarship At Valley Forge

Harry Allendorfer won a $1,100 scholarship to Valley Forge Military Academy by taking a series of tests at his home Thursday and Friday, April 16 and 17. The scholarship was based on school grades and music tests covering sight reading and technique.

His grades were submitted to the academy by Mr. Ackley and the tests conducted by Captain Hill, assistant registrar. Formerly Captain Hill was the academy's bandmaster.

The tests were to be held at Valley Forge, but due to the flood and the uncertain condition of Johnstown, Mr. Hill came to Harry's home.

THE YODLER

Published by the Junior Class of the Westmont-Lupper Yoder High School
Johnstown, Pennsylvania
Member of the Pennsylvania School
Press Association

Yearly Subscriptions, 12 copies ..... 25
Micrograph Copies, each ..... 02
Commercial Copies, each ..... 05

Editor-in-Chief	Elizabeth Thomas
Associate Editor	Christine Smith
Head News Editor	Nancy Cobbe
Class Editor	Mary Jane Noymer
Girls' Sports Editor	Betty Succop
Boys' Sports Editor	Robert Harley
Girls' Clubs Editor	Helen Kerr
Boys' Clubs Editor	Charles Crouse
Student Activities	Mildred Weigle
Feature Story	Robert Morcer
Administration Editor	Robert Hoerle
Art Editor	Arthur Alendortter
Humor Editor	Herman Strahlbin
Exchange Editor	Mary Edith Crichon
Typists	Betty Brown, Betty Feathers, Marie Arendt, Wilma Patrick, Mary Zundel
Proof Readers	Anna Berg Shirley Patterson
Business Manager	William Trindale
Circulation Managers	Freeman Fullerton William Mac Isaac
Assistant Business Managers	David Greenberg, Charles Crouse

April 18, 1936
Dear friends of W. U. Y. H. S.:

For many days and weeks I had been waiting for the hour when I could greet all of you again. And that day and hour last week gave me much joy. I was so glad to find that you were still thinking of me and wishing, too, for the time when I could be back permanently. Every one has been so kind and thoughtful that I can realize now how good it is to have friends who don't forget when one is a "long time away" and when minutes go "round and round" and seem to come out nowhere.

Keep on getting ready for your excellent contributions which all of us must give to making the best for the world's living.

Faithfully,
Laura E. McCann,
Sunshine Avenue.

THE PHOENICIAN IN THE MAKING

Yes, there will be a 1936 Phoenician, despite the flood and the fact that the seniors have been without an advisor. A new and different Phoenician has been the cry of under-classes for years. The 1936 class steps up to say that it will give it to you. Better pictures and more of them; each article written in a new and different style; best engraving available — an all around super super sample of the art and talent of the class of 1936. This Phoenician will go down in the history of W. U. Y. High School as unequalled in its wit and humor as well as in its literary value. Under the watchful eye of the editor nothing below par will find its way between the covers.

The seniors say, "Watch for our Phoenician."

HOW TO VOTE

What Constitutes a State?
Nor raised battlement nor labored mound,
Thick wall or moated gate,
No, men—high minded men.

—Sir William Jones.

A student government is as weak or as strong as the men who constitute it—particularly the leader of these men.

What type of a student should you vote for, for student council president?

Well, he (or she) should not be chosen only because he is your best friend, because he's a hale well-met sort of person with an infectious grin, because he has a sense of humor and laughs at your jokes, or because he is popular with boys or girls.

But rather, choose your candidate because he has character and stands for right principles; because he has the energy, the persistence, and the time to do the job thoroughly and well; because he has the confidence of the school; because he has the ability to make the council follow him willingly; and because he can speak well and forcefully before a group.

That is the sort of girl or boy who should get your vote for student council president.

CHARM IN GIRLS

Considering the fact that girls are merely decorative in purpose, it is not surprising that they should spend most of their time trying to attract attention, become grown-up, or some relatively unimportant thing which will come about by itself in due time. Girls get queer ideas of what is charming. For a while funny faces and loud voices were the craze. The author, however, notes an encouraging decrease of this in later years. Upon actual trial, this method was found wanting, as it did not seem to have much affect upon those for whom it was intended. Now after several years of exhaustive research and experiment upon us suffering martyrs to science, a new method has been devised. The girls are going in for the subtle. Quite a few have arrived at being blase, and one or two have made a pretty poor attempt at being cynical, if they know what the word means. Sooner or later, however, they arrive at the very simple conclusion that no one is as grown up as real grown-ups, and that if they will drop their poor acting and be natural, they will be much more pleasing and go a lot further towards real permanent charm.

P. S. The most charming girls are the quietest, but as this applies to boys also, maybe I had better not say anything.

Same Boy

MORE CHARM HINTS

What kind of boys do girls like? What kind of girls do boys like? A sophomore girl with "a nose for news" has discovered the following opinions of various high school students regarding their preferences.

The lucky boys who are naturally gifted with dark curly hair and dark eyes ought to "thank their lucky stars" for they are the "rage" now. For an unexplainable reason girls always "go for tall, dark, and handsome." (Incidentally Bob Taylor is the passion of all girls in the teen age and up.) These are all well and good but, take it from a distinguished member of our women's faculty, personality, character, disposition, and neat appearance are the features that really count. She is right. The boys can and should develop a charming personality, for no girl goes with a boy long just because he has a handsome "mug," or vice versa. By the way, boys, girls detest white speckled ties and fickle ways.

As for the girls, boys, as a rule, don't care for the heavily lip-sticked lips or the smoking. They like girls in a big way, though, if they have some of these points: Nicely manicured nails, wavy hair, nice posture, cleanly habits and neat dress. Moral high standards in a girl rank as its highest of qualities needed.

Now as a "parting shot" to both sexes, take the above advice, and practice it. See if it doesn't bring your "secret passion" around.

A Sophomore Girl

GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

TIOGA STREET AN IMAGINARY CIRCUS

In the evening when I cannot sleep, I try to imagine things. One thing I pictured was a make believe circus. It was just an ordinary circus reversed. The people were in the cages and the animals were the spectators. To see the elephants and monkeys feeding the Indians peanuts was very odd and laughable. It was also strange to see a tiger training fifteen Americans to do stunts. The animals seemed pleased and to be enjoying themselves.

Bill Thomas
Grade 5, Tioga St.

AT THE CIRCUS PARADE

One early morning my mother asked me if I wished to see the circus parade. Of course, I said, "Yes," for I had never seen one before. When we arrived on Main Street, we took our places, and very soon the parade came down the street. Such a marvelous sight it was! Horsemen, camels, monkeys, dancers, clowns, and all sorts of animals and people! At last came the slow elephants. One of the elephants sniffed the air, broke away, and darted towards me. Mother and I ran. I was behind mother, and the elephant reached over her shoulder, took my bag of peanuts, and went back in line. Just then the alarm clock rang and I woke up.

Madeleine Craighead
Grade 5, Tioga St.

STUTZMAN

"I wouldn't eat Galliker's ice cream if I were you, John," said Joe.

"Why?" asked John.

"Because it isn't Sanitary," said Joe.

"Oh, I know a few things!" said a haughty senior.

"Well, you haven't anything on me," retorted the freshman. "I guess I know as few as anybody."

Harry—My cousin got her face lifted but it didn't take.

Bill—Didn't take!

Harry—No, when the doctor gave her the bill, it fell.

Mother—When the boy threw stones at you, why didn't you come and tell me instead of throwing them back at him?

Willie—What good would it do to tell you? You couldn't hit the side of a barn.

Sportorial

Coach Engh

"What do you say, boys? Shall we or shall we not have our school represented by the best track team that is possible? Surely! How can we do it?"

First, by every able bodied, two fisted, high stepping and rabbit-footed he-man coming out on the cinder track and showing us his "dust."

Second, by getting interested in a sport where you can be proud to say, "That which I have accomplished has been by my own individual effort and I hope that others may get a similar feeling of satisfaction."

This is no secret, but Ferndale has about forty boys out running and jumping and they intend to come up to Westmont in a dual meet and show us how it can be done.

Do we permit such things? No, brother, no. Listen, you old timers who say we have no "pep" and spirit, from now on you have a standing invitation to come out to the high school and watch us step high, wide and fancy.

At the present time about twenty boys are doing their "stuff" and by a command from the General, the closing date for additional entrants has been extended one week.

We intend to carry on the following seven-point track program:
Have a dual meet with Ferndale.

An inter-class meet.
If the Continental Ace, the Ford, and a few other good cars don't get washed up, take some boys to the University of Pittsburgh Inter-scholastics at Pittsburgh on May 2.

Be represented in the Johnstown Jr. College Meet—May 1.
Cambria County Track Meet—May 23.
Send a few boys to the District No. 6, P. I. A. A. meet at Altoona on May 16.

Be the sponsors of the Westmont-Upper Yoder Grade School Meet on May 29 (probable date).
That's enough track "food" for any season, isn't it? Come and get your share but remember that it takes intensive fortitude to be a real track athlete."

CAT AND THE CANARY

(Continued from Page 1)

belle West, a young, frank, fearless, modern girl; Cletus Petchar as Hendricks, the harsh, cruel guard at the asylum; and Charles Crouse as Patterson, the doctor.
Miss Greer, the coach, and Betty Succop, holder of the manuscript, watch rehearsals every evening after school. The acts are shaping themselves readily

SCHOOL SCHEDULE

General Activities

May 15—Junior Play
May 22—Eighth Grade Examinations.
May 29—Junior Prom.
June 5—Eighth Grade Commencement.
June 5—Grade School Closes.
June 7—Baccalaureate
June 11—Award Night.
June 12—High School Commencement.
June 12—High School closes.

Athletic Events

April 24—Penn Relays—not to be entered by W.U.Y.H.S.
May 1—Junio College Track Meet.
May 15—May Festival—not to be given.
May 23—Cambria County Track Meet.
May 29—Track Meet—Westmont and Upper Yoder Grade Schools.

These changes in the schedule are due to the unexpected vacation from March 18 to April 3, during which time the school building was used for housing flood refugees. Any of the above dates may be subject to further changes.

PENN RELAYS NOT FOR US COACH SAYS

According to Coach Engh, it is very improbable that the relay team will make its annual trip to Philadelphia for the Penn Relays, the reason being, Coach says, "that the outstanding entries are being limited to only the very best, and I feel that unless something entirely unforeseen happens, this year's team will not likely fill the qualifications set up."

toward the thrilling, chilling production.

Others working along with the cast and directors toward a finished product are: stage manager, Robert Harley; properties, Mary Edith Crichton, Helen Kerr, and Catherine Thomas; scenery, Robert Harley, Paul Lentz, Arthur Allendorfer, Charles Cook, and Charles Price. The art supervisor is Miss Hirsch.

WHO IS SHE?

Lively little senior—red, wavy hair—hazel eyes—subjects, French II, English IV, P. O. D., solid geometry—member of Student Council, Girl Reserves, girls' chorus, trio, Senior Dramatics Club, senior play—pet aversion, solid geometry—favorite sport, basketball—hobby, dancing—pet. expression, "Cats!"—education to be continued at Beaver.

WHO IS HE?

A senior—medium brown hair—light blue eyes—subjects: English IV, chemistry, trigonometry, physics, mechanical drawing, hobby, printing pictures—favorite sport, football—favorite activities, eating and sleeping (so he says)—most common expression, "Gwan!"—newcomer to Westmont this year—wears W. U. Y. sweater already—practiced monologist—sports an air-cooled pipe.—Says, "I will donate two dollars to the school when I make my millions."

Girls Plan Spring Sports Schedule

The Girls' Gym Club is sponsoring a mushball and volley ball tournament, beginning today, April 23 at noon in the gymnasium. The four classes are participating in the mushball, but only freshmen, sophomores, and juniors are playing volley ball. On the freshmen teams, Laura Yost is captain of the mushball team, and Betty Glosser of the volley ball team. In the sophomore class Sara Brickner is captain of the mush-ball and Sara Lou Daley of volley-ball. The juniors have Betty Succop captaining the mushball and Dolly Thomas the volley-ball. Thelma Price has charge of the junior mushball team.

The Schedules Are as Follows:

MUSHBALL

(First Half)

Thurs., April 23—Fresh. vs. Sr.
Tues., April 28—Soph. vs. Jr.
Thurs., April 30—Jr. vs. Fresh.
Tues., May 5—Soph. vs. Sr.
Thurs., May 7—Fresh. vs. Soph.
Tues., May 12—Jr. vs. Sr.

(Second Half)

Thurs., May 14—Fresh. vs. Sr.
Tues., May 19—Soph. vs. Jr.
Thurs., May 21—Jr. vs. Fresh.
Tues., May 26—Soph. vs. Sr.
Thurs., May 28—Fresh. vs. Soph.
Tues., June 2—Jr. vs. Sr.

Championship Games

Thurs., June 4—Winner of first half vs. winner of second half.
Tues., June 9—Final game.

VOLLEY BALL

(First Half)

Wed., April 22—Fresh. vs. Soph.
Fri., April 24—Fresh vs. Jr.
Mon., April 27—Soph. vs. Jr.
Wed., April 29—Fresh vs. Soph.
Fri., May 1—Fresh. vs. Sr.
Mon., May 4—Soph. vs. Sr.

Championship Games

Wed.—May 6
Fri.—May 8
Mon.—May 11

Rabbi Ralph Simon Spoke Today

Rabbi Ralph Simon was the speaker at a joint meeting of the Girls' and Boys' Clubs was held this morning in the Auditorium. His subject was "American Neutrality."

Rabbi Simon has spoken in the high school on several occasions. Three years ago he was the grade school commencement speaker for the 1937 class.

For about five years Mr. Simon has been situated in Johnstown as the Rabbi of the Rodet Shalom Synagogue. He is connected with the Red Cross Committee for the rehabilitation of Johnstown.

HUMOR

Mrs. McIlhany: A truck just ran over your best straw hat, dear.

Mr. McIlhany: (Absent-mindedly) Good heavens, was I wearing it at the time?

Teacher (warning her pupils against catching cold): I had a little brother seven years old, and one day he took his new sled out in the snow. He caught pneumonia, and three days later he died.

Silence for ten seconds

Voice from the rear: (probably Donald Brant) Where's his sled?

Mr. Ott: I forgot my umbrella this morning.

Mrs. Ott: When did you realize you had forgotten it?

Mr. Ott: Well, I missed it when I raised my hand to close it after it had stopped raining.

Jay: I think that the driver in that car ahead must be a teacher I had when I was in school.

Ray: what makes you think that?

Jay: She was just as stubborn about letting me pass.

An English student tells a droll tale about the deaf and dumb man who had a night-mare and broke his knuckles on a bedpost, screaming.

Two men at a "talkie" were sitting just in front of two women, whose continuous chatter they stood as long as they could. One of them turned around and said, "Pardon me, madam, but my friend and I can't hear."

Whereupon came the unexpected reply: "You're not supposed to. This is a private conversation."

MODEL CAMPAIGN SPEECH

Classmates, I am here to tell you why you should elect me Student Council president. If I am elected this year there will be no night work! If I am elected next year, there will be no sixth period! And if I am elected the third year, there will be no school!!!

Ted Boyer

DEBATE CLUB CLOSES WORK FOR YEAR

At the last meeting of the debate club held on April 7, in room 208, it was decided that the club would discontinue its meetings for the year.

The following people will form the nucleus for next year's team: Robert Hoerle and Helen Kerr, '37; Betty Myers, Sara Brickner, and Rita Finkelstein, '38.

To tell if an ostrich is a male or female, tell it a joke.

If he laughs, it's a male.

If she laughs, it's a female.

Teacher: Will you boys stop exchanging notes in the back of the room?

Student: Them ain't notes, them's cards. We're playing bridge.

Teacher: Oh, I beg your pardon.

One Johnstowner to another: Was your car saved in the flood? The Other: Sure! It had floating power.

WINNIE WEST

Dear Winnie West: What's the matter with Woods?

Bob Warren

Dear Bob: I'll "Betty" has a girl on his mind.

Winnie

Dear Winnie West: Why hasn't Jane Maley been in school lately?

Bill Feldt

Dear Bill: I guess "Sheesley—ps" all day.

Winnie

Dear Winnie West: Should I keep on liking my present heart throbb?

Marylin Griffith

Dear Marylin: Stick to him; he's good-looking and "Sharmen."

Winnie

Dear Winnie West: I am sick of this weather; can't you do something about it?

Julius Little

Dear Julius: "May" is warm.

Winnie

Dear Winnie West: Did you know that I am interested in a certain sophomore girl?

Charles Price

Dear Charles: Well, well, is that "Wright" Winnie

WHAT IF

Pauline were a gunner instead of a Bowman.

William were wool instead of Feldt.

Merle were a grove instead of a Woods.

Mary Louise were a foot instead of a Head.

Gertrude were a fisher instead of a Hunter.

Mary were a moth instead of a Miller.

Lois were less instead of Moore.

Naomi were a rather instead of a Beam.

Betty were tar instead of Feathers.

Edna were a battle instead of a Fite.

Betty were a carpenter instead of a Mason.

Elmer were a highway instead of Rhodes.

Francis were a runner instead of a Walker.

Allen were a pew instead of an Alter.

Ann were a plumber instead of a Gardner.

William were oats instead of Hays.

Austin were a skip instead of a Hopp.

Lloyd were a stem instead of a Root.

Jack were a mask instead of a Yell.

Dorothy were lively instead of Dull.

Robert were a mountain instead of a Hill.

Carl were a calf instead of a Hipp.

Francis were a queen instead of a Hipp.

Arthur were short instead of Long.

Freda were boots instead of a Sattel.

Frederick were a doctor instead of a Yanker.

THE TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

"The typographical error is a slippery thing and sly

You can hunt till you get dizzy, but somehow it will get by.

Till the form is off the press it is strange how still it keeps,

it shrinks into a corner and it never stirs or peeps;

That typographical error, too small for human eyes

Till the ink is on the paper, then it grows to mountain size.

The boss he stares with horror, then he grabs his hair and groans;

The copyreader drops his head upon his hand and moans.

The remainder of the paper

may be clean as can be,

But the typographical error is the only thing you see."

—Student Leader

SPRING FASHIONS

Girls, did you ever stop to think how very inconsistent you really are in the clothes you wear and the fashions you follow?

This Easter you probably bought a mannish suit, topped it off with a perky feminine hat.

Peeping out in front was a fussy little dab of organdie called a blouse. Pinned at your neck was a cluster of "genuine life-like" flowers. Then thinking you must have everything, you bought a leather watch fob and tucked it in your suit pocket. Your shoes and gloves undoubtedly were tailored, but then you carried a purse, and what man would do that?

Well it's rather jumbled up, but on a whole the result is not so bad.

Betty Myers

ALUMNI NEWS

Robert Maclntyre, who is attending Indiana State Teachers College, has been initiated into the Pi Kappa Sigma Sorority. She was chosen among the eight girls from her school to attend Eagles—Mere Camp near Williamsport, Pennsylvania, where she will be a Junior Counsellor this summer. Roberta was also elected publicity agent for the Y. W. C. A.

The four students from Valley Forge Military Academy who were victims of the dreadful airplane tragedy near Uniontown were personal friends of Wade Ackley.

Harvey Grazier, a sophomore at the University of Vermont, has been placed on the Dean's list for the first semester, 1935-36, for having obtained a  $\frac{1}{2}$  A— $\frac{1}{2}$  B average for scholastic standing.

From Edgewood Park Junior College it has been reported that Eileen Daley, with thirty girls from the school, spent her spring vacation in Bermuda. She is an A-B student in the Medical Assistance Course.

Bill and George Stalter were in town visiting their friends lately and viewing the flood damage. Bill is attending Allentown Prep, and George is a member of the Alpha Kappa Pi Fraternity at Penn State.

During the flood two graduates of last year, Bill Schneck and Arthur Zimmer, were quite active in relief work with their own attachment of C. C. C. Groups. Bill Schneck was sent with his enlistment to Johnstown's aid. Arthur Zimmer was stationed at Sunbury.