

ASSEMBLY AUDIENCE HEARTILY APPROVES COMMERCIAL PLAY

Judging from the applause, all agree that the commercial department play, "Yesterday and Today" given in assembly Friday morning, January 24, represents the student's idea of a top-notch program. Miss Alice Boyer, Mrs. Lydia Landis Davis and Herbert Raab directed the panorama of office methods of the last two decades.

The clever ending given in the form of a radio audition was written by members of the cast. Russell Heffley's swing band, Bette Wermine, vocalist and Carl Engh, sports commentator added to the play.

DEPARTMENTS COOPERATE IN AMERICAN MAGAZINE ESSAY WRITING CONTEST

Seniors are writing essays under the direction of Miss Cathryne I. Esenwein and Miss Catherine Reiser for the fourth annual contest held by "The American Magazine."

This year's competition is a challenge to youthful Americans to think fearlessly and progressively about the role of democracy in a chaotic world—to express their thoughts, feelings and hopes for their own future and the future of America.

To everyone of the 6,000,000 students in secondary schools in America the Forum offers an opportunity to win one of the two $1,000 awards, or one of the 430 other cash awards ranging from $5 to $500.

G. R. CLUB MEMBERS SEW FOR BRITISH CHILDREN

The Girl Reserves have turned their organization into a "stitch and chat" club which sews baby clothing for the British children who are now without homes and food. This project is sponsored by the local Red Cross unit.

The club must believe that "the way to a man's heart is via his stomach" because at the meeting January 13, a representative of the Swift Company revealed the secrets of baking a successful cake.

Allbright Freshmen Elect Miss Wright, Secretary

Miss Rillie Lee Wright, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George F. Wright, was elected secretary of the Freshman class at Albright College.

Miss Wright, graduate of Westmont-Upper Yoder High School, is enrolled in the Liberal Arts curriculum at Albright. She is the third member of the Wright family to attend Albright. Dr. Wright is a member of the college's Board of Trustees.

GRAND OLD SENIORS LEAD HONOR ROLL FOR THIRD TIME

Juniors Take Second Place

Senior students carried off top scholastic honors for the third report period, 15 from that class earning places on the honor roll.

Eleven juniors, six sophomores and seven freshmen also made honor ratings. Twenty-one students received honorable mention.

The complete list of honor pupils follows:

Honor Roll

Seniors—Peggy Allendorfer, Miriam Beam, Leroy Boyer, Dorothy Faverty, Arnold Friedhoff, Roger Hager, Audrey Hunt, Mildred Kuyat, Ella Livingston, Lois Ling, Eleanor Pikovsky, Phyllis Reitz, Rose Slavik, Edna Stock and Clara Ann Thomas.

Juniors—Rita Bregman, Lucille Ferg, Jack Francis, Zandy Ogle, Allen Powell, Eddie Sacks, Mary Ann Stinely, Betsy Trent, Robert Weigle, Ruth Zimmerman, and Audrey Hartley.

Sophomores—Frank Fetterolf, Imogene Grove, Stanley Hocker, Eleanor Johnston, Ida Mae Kish and Louise Palowitch.

Honorable Mention

Sophomores—Corinne Berkebile, Irene Mlinarchik, Robert Stutzman, Martha Trytten and Peggy Wilson.

Freshmen—Ruth Bell, Harry Cramer, Hulda Freidhoff, Daniel Ritter and Ned Shappell.

LOCAL AUXILIARY SPONSORS ESSAY CONTEST

Do you want some extra pocket money? It can be done if you enter the National Essay Contest, sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. The subject is "One Nation Indivisible."

Democracy is imperiled today by enemies inside and beyond our borders. The Essay Contest is aiding effectively in the general movement to renew our national zeal for maintaining America's freedom.

In last year's contest Robert Stinely was placed among the winners. He will be exempt this year as he has already won a cash prize. There were four winners in Cambria County.

W-U.Y. LIBRARY METHODS RATED SUPERIOR

Miss M. Margaret Greer, librarian, received a letter from Roy O. Anderson of the Newport Harbor Union High School asking her to fill out a questionnaire which will be used to aid the California schools in making their library facilities available to all students.

Only schools with superior or progressive library methods were asked to aid in this survey.

READING COMMITTEE SELECT "THE AMERICAN WAY" FOR SENIOR PLAY

After careful deliberation the senior play reading committee selected the George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart production, "The American Way". Walter Winchell said of the play, "It is as exciting and as beautiful as the American Flag. Long may it run." The theme is both timely and important to all Americans.

Miss M. Margaret Greer, the director of a long list of successful plays, states that this play will require a larger cast than any senior play of recent years. "The American Way" also requires many different sets which she feels can be worked out successfully by Mrs. Madge Boden Rose and the stage crew.

"The American Way" was first produced by Sam H. Harris and Max Gordon at the Center Theatre, Rockefeller Center, New York City, on the evening of Saturday, January 21, 1939. Frederic March and Florence Eldridge played the leads in the original company.

FRENCH STUDENTS GAIN KNOWLEDGE OF COUNTRY, PEOPLE AND LANGUAGE

Le Francais I is working industriously for Mme. Margaret McCready, and themselves.

The students have been learning to read as well as speak French. The list of entertaining and informative reading material includes the ever popular story of "Red Riding Hood."

One of the most exciting things about studying a foreign language is learning to think in that language without translating back to English. This means that each student must become familiar with a great number of idiomatic expressions as well as the ordinary vocabulary.

The students are indirectly learning history, geography and character traits of the French people along with the language.

The students are also preparing term papers on the life of French people, and the country of France before the war. These papers are worked on each six weeks and each person is responsible for one.

HI-Y BEGINS ANNUAL COURSE IN BIBLE STUDY CONTEST

The Hi-Y Club began its courses for the annual Bible Study Contest, Monday, January 27. The first lesson was conducted by Foster James, club president, and Dick Corbin, vice-president. This same procedure will be carried on for several weeks with different members taking charge each week.

After seven weeks of this study, the Bible Study test will be given. This is a competitive affair between the Hi-Y's of the entire state. Two years ago W-U.Y. came in second in this contest.

MUSIC GROUP PLANS CONCERT MARCH 28

About March 28 the Music Department will give a concert filled with a variety of entertainment. There will be many new and interesting features.

Edmund D. Horner, who will direct the concert, announces that it will take the place of an operetta.

ANSWERED BY MR. RAMSAY

Question 1. Are the Italian people behind Mussolini's actions?

Answer. The Italian people have no love for Mussolini.

Question 2. At the present time which nation has the best chance for victory, Great Britain or Germany?

Answer. Neither side will win. One side may emerge but neither will win.

Question 3. What are we doing about stopping the subversive groups in the United States?

Answer. We are using F.B.I. and other checks. We must have a careful interpretation of liberty and freedom. We must distinguish between freedom and license.

Question 4. Do you think that Turkey is sincere in aiding Great Britain?

Answer. Turkey is definitely on the side of Great Britain. The Turks hate Mussolini and Hitler. As Turkey goes so will go the east.

Question 5. Can United States give sufficient aid to Great Britain?

Answer. I don't know. We should be able, but shall we?

Question 6. Will any complications arise among the organizations of Hitler's government?

Answer. Rivalry among organizations will lead to revolution. Goering is the strong man above all others. There will be revolutions and counter revolutions.

Question 7. Is England getting aid from any source other than the United States?

Answer. England is getting aid from conquered countries—particularly in the Scandinavian countries.

Question 8. It is likely that the French navy will go back in the war on the side of Great Britain?

Answer. There is a possibility that the navy will go back to England.

LANGUAGE KEEPS UP WITH THE TIMES

Language is a living thing which changes with the times. New words are formed to carry forth new ideas. That is why a language student must study a whole lifetime.

According to Charles Earle Funk, editor of the New Standard Dictionary, 1941, has added fifty new words to the English language which will probably become permanent.

A few of the well-known ones adopted from Germany include the now well-known Blitzkrieg, meaning lightning warfare; Luft-waffe, the air force; Panzer, mechanized; Stuka, a dive-bomber, Gauleiter, a district leader; Lebensraum, vital space. As these are German nouns, we still begin them with capital letters. When the words are fully anglicized, the capitals will be dropped.

If you are a swing fan you must know that boogie-woogie is nothing more alarming than piano music with a fast, rolling bass, and that, imitative of the baby-crying sound given, a wah-wah or wa-wa is one kind of mute for the bell of a trombone or trumpet. Other unattractive terms in this avenue are, mugging, staccato swing; schmaltz or schmalz, sweet and sentimental; barrel-house, old-time and pretty abandoned jazz playing; whacky or wacky, crazy—discordant and noisy; and by no means least, gut-bucket, primitive if heartfelt jazz.

It's hard to tell exactly where language is going. The problem is to keep up with it.

EXCHANGE

(From P.S.P.A. Bulletin)

Presenting the idea of a student court to the student body, THE HIGH ARROW of Indiana used a front page story.

From the Vocational section of THE EMERALD, Ridley Township High School, Woodlyn, comes the interesting item that the RTHS Machine Shop is part of the U. S. Defense Program.

THE PALM of Palmer Township Schools, Easton, a mimeographed grade school magazine, is crammed full of interesting bits of news from all of the schools it represents. The section set apart for primary news is typed in letters several times the size of the other letters used.

By quoting and answering a student's letter about news coverage of all groups of students, THE TRIANGLE of Clearfield shows its conscientious concern for this problem. The editors say that they are now keeping records of all student names appearing in the paper.

OLNEY HIGHLIGHTS, Philadelphia, runs a cartoon-strip at the bottom of a page in each issue.

As a supplement to their study in newspaper work 68 sophomores visited the Tribune Publishing Company, Friday, January 17.

... THE JUKE BOX ...

By DICK LOVE

Due to some unknown reason, no good bands have visited Johnstown since the last issue, and so without further ado, we turn to pages 12 and 13 in our magazine "Downbeat" and find a poll conducted throughout the United States to determine the nation's best bands, it's outstanding players, and of course, the king of corn. Please note that the leaders are ineligible in the individual players poll, because "Downbeat" decided to give the side-men a chance this year. Therefore, the people voters had to give more thought to their selections which means that we have the really good musicians of the country as first. Here goes.

The outstanding swing band of the country is Benny Goodman's, with Duke Ellington running second. Glenn Miller leads the sweet band division with Tommy Dorsey hot in his trail.

The nation's best trumpet player is Ziggy Elman with Muggsy Spanier coming in second. The trombone section is led by Jack Jenny with the second place going to Jay Higginbotham.

The winning clarinetist is Irving Fazola, with Johnny Mince right behind him. The best alto sax men are Johnny Hodges and Toots Mondello. The tenor saxes are led by Eddie Miller with Tex Beneke coming in second.

The number one drummer in the poll is Ray Baudce with Buddy Rich just a wee bit behind him. The guitar honors went to Charlie Christian and Hy White. The first honors in the piano field went to Jess Stacy and second place is Bud Zurke. The best Bass thumper is Bobby Haggart and second best is Artie Bernstein.

The best arranger is Fletcher Henderson with Sy Oliver coming up second. Your favorite "band within the band" is the everpopular Benny Goodman Sextet with John Kirby's Combo coming on second. The nation's king of corn happens to be Guy Lombardo with Clyde McCoy a close second. I'm disappointed. Didn't anybody vote for Russel Heffley's orchestra?

I see we have a little room left, so here is some good recordings.

POPULAR

Glenn Miller

Five O'clock Whistle—Bluebird 10900

A fine example of a jump arrangement by Miller. The whole band slams into the first chorus and the snappy introduction of one of those "Boogie" type vocals by Marion Hutton. Tex Beneke finds room to push a little tenor bit into the arrangement before the brass section plows into the go chorus. This tune has a terrific kick and is worth the 35 cents.

Charlie Barnet

I Hear a Rhapsody—Bluebird 10934

Although there is nothing unusual about this tune, Barnet's arrangement brings out enough high spots to make it one of the best. The first chorus is given to the sax section with plenty of breaks by the brass, and without any fooling around it leads into the vocal by Bob Carroll, which is one of the high spots. The next noticeable part is the capable guitar strumming of Bus Etri. The jump chorus is taken by the whole band and the record closes with an unusually abrupt ending. This is one of those tricky ideas of Charlie's. A very danceable pop.

SWING

Tommy Dorsey

Make Me Know It—Bluebird 26786

An original Sy Oliver riff tune done up as a prize package by the Dorsey Sidemen. The riff is given to you first by Johnny Mince's clarinet. Suddenly the rest of the band breaks in and the record almost jumps off the turntable and there on. Next comes some lowdown trumpet sending by Ziggy Elman and Don Lodice quickly takes it up with some outstanding tenor work. The band then fills out the riff for a part or so and then a few bars are given to Buddy Rich who drums the way into the last lap for the rest of the band who really let loose. The whole work is supported by a very strong rhythm section sparked by Buddy Rich, the boy who is going to be miles ahead of Gene Krupa in a year or so. Words can't describe this record; just try it and see what I mean. For example of one of those Saturday Afternoon bashes that Tommy conducted this summer, this record has no equal.

W-U.Y. DIDN'T NEED HORSE TO DEFEAT TROYAN WARRIORS

Who? The Hilltop Cagers.
What? Defeated The Johnstown Trojans.
Where? W-U.Y. gymnasium.
When? January 22.
How? By excellent team work.
Why? Because the boys are really good.
When the game was over and the tension broken W-U.Y. had a 47 to 26 victory to their credit. Everyone from W-U.Y. cheered and jumped around. The players beamed all over the place.

The following quotations give an idea of how the team felt after the game was over.

Kocis: "I had a feeling of great satisfaction because it was a game we all wanted to win."

Lantos: "I was so glad that I couldn't find words to express my feelings."

James: "I was so relieved that I could have eaten another pint of ice cream."

Devaux: "I felt fine because we beat a team which was good competition."

Cowan: "I felt very happy because Johnstown had beaten us last year and now we became even with them."

Gyauch: "I felt extra jolly."

Lentz: "I was very relieved and felt as though a lot of tension was finally broken."

Quinn: "I felt extra fine because it was a game worth winning."

The student body felt the same.

THE JAY VEES

The Jay Vees include the following players: E. Quinn, C. Buser, R. Weiss, J. Francis, D. Lentz, D. Dunkle, A. Ogle, and G. Matthews.

There is now a new Tri-County League organized specially for Jay Vee teams of schools with varsity teams.

SPEAKING OF AMERICA

Did You Know . . .

Basketball, an American winter game was invented in 1891 by James Naismith.

The game is one of the best possible for athletic development, as it calls for great quickness, agility and endurance.

Baseball—It probably organized in the English game of rounders but it is American in its modern form.

Sportsmanship is very dear to the hearts of all Americans. This is proved in all fields.

VARSITY W CLUB

The Varsity "W" Club is to receive the gate receipts from two receptions and is to split the proceeds of one reception with the Senior Class. The reasons that the "W" Club has for having these dances are as follows:

The Varsity Club must pay a debt of forty-five dollars and fifty-four cents to the Athletic Association for the cost of the Football Banquet which was held at Alwines, December 9, 1940. The club wishes to buy awards for the following events: (1) A medal for the most outstanding athlete of the year; (2) a medal for the decathlon winner; (3) and a medal for each member of the National Athletic Society; (4) an honor award shield for the names of the three letter men of the school, a plaque for the names of the Decathlon winners, and also a shield for the names of the most outstanding athlete of each year.

MIRIAM MATTHEWS TAKES PING-PONG TITLE

Mary Jane Livingston Wins Second Place

After many months of exciting playing, the girls finally finished their ping-pong tournament a few weeks ago.

Miriam Matthews, a sophomore, took the laurels of victory from a field of about 60 girls from all classes in high school. She was runner-up in last year's tourney being defeated by Doris Glosser.

The girls have an excellent method of playing each other. First, all the girls in one class compete and the four best in the class play the four best of each of the other classes.

Mary Jane Livingston, a freshman, was runner-up this year in a very closely contested battle in which the upperclassman finally won.

Since the girls finished their tournament the boys are talking about their own intramural tournament and wondering when it's going to start.

Cheerleaders Want Song

What's the matter with the student body? Why doesn't it cheer? That's what our cheerleaders are wondering. In order to find some remedy, a meeting of the Pep Club was called recently.

Everyone decided that if the student body had better songs there would be more cheering. Hence, the cheerleaders are hunting for pep songs suitable for basketball and written to tunes which the band knows.

DECK-TENNIS

The seniors who were deck-tennis champions as juniors are leading the competition this year.

To date each class team has won one or two of the games.

SPORTATOR The Tri-County League

Most of W-U.Y. followers know that our basketball team is entered in the Tri-County League, which is composed of six evenly matched teams. The Tri-County League came into existence last year when the Conemaugh Valley League was discontinued. Previous to our entrance in the Conemaugh Valley League, W-U.Y. was entered in the Old Tri-County League.

In the new Tri-County League's first year of existence, which was last year, only one of all the league games was decided by a difference of more than three points. Present indications show that the entrants in the league this year are again evenly matched.

Report on the attendance at the league games thus far show unusually large crowds. The student bodies have exhibited splendid spirit in attending the games.

Let us now look at our own team. As for individual performance, Lantos, Cowan, and Kocis rank near the top of the league in scoring. The boys on W-U.Y.'s team, however, are not concerned with individualism; but their every effort is for the team's success.

Now, finally, let us look into the future. W-U.Y. is assured of good teams in the future, as the junior varsity is playing splendid ball. Also, great things are expected of the freshmen team. They certainly showed their ability in the Ebensburg Jay Vee game.

In conclusion, let's not forget the team deserves more than fifteen big rah-rahs. They want your cooperation and support because when they know your loyalty is with them the adage of "a team that won't be beat can't be beat" applies.

WESTMONT GRADUATE ON COLLEGE QUINTET

James Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Wood of Elim and a graduate of Westmont-Upper Yoder High School, who is playing varsity on the Shenandoah College (Va.) basketball team, has been reported doing an excellent job of filling in at the forward position left open by graduation at the Virginia college.

RULES GOVERNING PING PONG TOURNAMENT

1. Tournament will begin Monday, February 3.
2. Games will be played in basement at the entrance to auditorium from 3 till 4.
3. Games scheduled to be played each night will be postponed on the bulletin boards in the halls, two days in advance.
4. Anyone not reporting when his match is scheduled will forfeit his game, unless he makes arrangements with Mr. McIlroy prior to Noon of the day the match is scheduled.
5. No spectators, other than players scheduled to play each day.
6. The first several preliminary rounds will consist of matches of three 15-point games.
7. No matches will be played Friday afternoons.
8. Semi-final and final matches will be played in the Gym, with the student body invited to witness them.

AMONG THOSE PRESENT

Elsie Mae Boyles, a senior, says that the top song of the "Hit Parade" and the favorite of millions, Frenesi is hers also. She likes to chew gum.

Dorothy Popovitch, a freshman, hates to roller skate but loves to read. Her favorite selection is "Blue Danube" and her favorite swing orchestra is that of Wayne King. She uses "Oh Boy" more than any other slang expression. She likes chewing gum.

Wayne Stutzman is a sophomore. His hobby is collecting stamps. His favorite orchestra is Benny Goodman and his favorite song "Blueberry Hill". He uses the expression "Gosh! Darn It". He hates to be interviewed.

W-U.Y. GRADUATE ACCEPTS NURSING JOB

Miss Margaret Roach, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Roach of 315 Luzerne Street, Westmont, has accepted a position on the orthopedic staff of Emergency Hospital, Washington, D. C. She will begin her new duties February 1.

Miss Roach was a member of the 1924 graduating class of Westmont-Upper Yoder High School and was graduated from the Mercy Hospital Training School in 1927.

She also attended the D. T. Watson School of Orthopedics and Basic Physiotherapy, where she completed her post-graduate course in orthopedics.

Miss Roach is a registered nurse, having passed the state board examination in Pennsylvania, and holds membership in the American Red Cross Reserve Nursing Corps.

C. S. P. A. ADOPTS INSIGNIA

Members of the Cambria County School Press Association adopted an insignia designed by Ernest Strandquest, Jr. of Southmont. This attractive design was accepted last fall.

As yet the YODLER has not had a mast-head made from the insignia but it expects to do so in time for the next issue.

Look for it on the editorial page.

ALL AMERICAN NEWS

Defense Programs

Sixty-four American Engineering colleges in 35 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico have announced 250 short intensive training courses designed to meet the shortage of engineers for service as designers, inspectors, and supervisors with the industries and Government agencies engaged in the National Defense program.

Acceptance of the individual proposals is based, in each instance, upon a demonstration by the school that there is a definite defense need for the men to be trained, that it has the experience and facilities to give the necessary instruction at a reasonable cost, and that a sufficient number of qualified students are available.

P. S. E. A. PRESIDENT

The President of the Pennsylvania State Education Association for 1941 is Levi Gilbert, superintendent of the schools of Altoona.

HOME TALENT

Rehearsals will begin next week on the Johnstown Kiwanis Club home talent musical revue "Hooray America!" which will be presented under professional direction in the auditorium of Johnstown High School on February 18-19.

THE MOVIES

"Gone With The Wind" continues to be as popular as ever.

CLOTHES

Spring clothes reveal that red, white and blue are regarded as just the thing.

Emblems in pockets and sleeves are American in design and idea.

Teacher: "Now, if I subtract 25 from 37, what is the difference?"

W-U.Y.er: "Yeah! That's what I say. Who cares?"

TENTH AND LUZERNE

An orchid to the school board which helps make W-U.Y. the excellent school it is! The board has promised that all future stage productions will be more attractive than ever before because they have granted the requests for new stage equipment.

Who's who? It's "smart" to be "smart" these days. Just peep at the Honor Roll.

All theatre-goers eagerly await the production of "The American Way" by the seniors.

What's the latest hair style? At present it's pretty much "As You Like It."

Voted the most philosophical book of the first semester—"How Green Was My Valley."

"How To Read A Book" continues to interest students who really want "to read." An alumnus stated that every professor in his university classes suggested that everyone read it.

The popularity of Superman proves a very old adage "men are just boys grown tall." Also it proves that the early Greeks and Romans were pretty much like us after all. The super-men of the past burst forth into epics.

The Cochran Junior High School Dramatics Department selected Robert Emmet Sherwood's "Abe Lincoln in Illinois" as the annual tenth grade play. Last year the department gave Thorton Wilder's "Our Town."

No wonder January 22 brought smiles to all W-U.Y. faces after the 46-27 triumph over the Johnstown cagers the night before. The conquering heroes are Cowan, Lantos, James, Devaux, Kocis, Buser, Gyauch, Lentz, Corbin and Quinn.

Congratulations to all those who took part in the excellent concert given by the High School Band, the consolidated school band and the chorus, January 16.

A LAUGH A DAY KEEPS THE DOCTOR AWAY

You can always tell the English,
You can always tell the Dutch,
You can always tell the Freshmen,
But you cannot tell them much!

Druggist: Did you kill the moths with the balls I sold you?
Sap: No, I sat up all night and didn't hit a single one.

Senior to Sophomore: How many solids are you carrying?
Sophomore: I am carrying one and dragging three.

Pete: What is the date?
Teacher: Never mind the date, the examination is more important.

Pete: Well I only wanted something right on my paper.

TRUE STORY

(Borrowed)

Slippery ice—very thin;
Pretty girl—tumbled in;
Saw a boy—on the bank;
Gave a shriek—then she sank;
Boy on hand—heard her shout;
Jumped right in—pulled her out;
Now he's hers—very nice;
But she had—to break the ice.

Teacher: "What is geometry?"
Student: "The little acorn grew and grew, and one day woke up and said, 'Ge-om-etry'."
