

JUNIORS STAGE DANCE TONIGHT

NEW TEACHERS INTERVIEWED

At the start of this new school year, we are glad to welcome four new faculty members to our "haven of learning." By this time you know: Miss Gerhardt, Mrs. Sheehee, Mrs. Grandinetti, and Mr. Askey. We know their names, but here are some new details.

Miss Gerhardt, who teaches American history, Civics, and P. O. D., was born in Greenville, Pa., but moved to Johnstown at the age of two. She attended the Johnstown Public Schools, graduated from Johnstown High, and went to Thiel College in Greenville from which she was graduated with a B. A. degree. For the past six years she has lived in Westmont. Previous to this year she taught at Richland. For the last few summers she has been a counselor at the Blue Knob (Y. W. C. A.) Camp, where she was instructor of swimming and handicrafts. She will direct the Senior Play this year. Her favorite song is "As Time Goes By." She loves spaghetti and collecting antiques.

World history, art, and mechanical drawing are being taught this year by the talented Mrs. Sheehee. She was born and reared in Johnstown; she attended Catholic High School before going to Indiana State Teachers' College where she was graduated with a B. S. degree. After graduating she supervised art for five years at the East Conemaugh High School, and Grade School. Her hobbies are collecting antiques, dress designing, swimming, playing bridge, and painting. She is a member of the Allied Artists, an art club in Johnstown. She likes to read and listen to music in her spare time. "With all those hobbies, Mrs. Sheehee, when do you have any spare time?"

Mrs. Grandinetti, or Mary Ann, as she likes to be called, is our new Music Director. She is a native of Johnstown; after graduating from Johnstown High School, she attended Lebanon Valley College and Engle Conservatory of Music, where she received her B. A., and B. S. degrees. This is her fourth year of teaching and the boys and girls who attended Stutzman Junior High know her because she taught there previous to this year. She particularly loves boys and girls. During the summer she has a playground for them. Her chief hobby is playing tennis. She enjoys reading and listening to good music.

Our new assistant coach this year is Mr. Askey, who was born in Clymer, Pennsylvania, where he went to school. He was graduated from Indiana State Teachers' College with a B. S. degree and went to the Young Township Schools in Indiana County. He then became coach and director of physical education in Elder's Ridge High School, he was next appointed coach of basketball, baseball, and track at Kiskiminetus Springs School, a private preparatory school in Saltsburg, Pennsylvania. Before going to Kiski his only athletic connection was that of basketball official. A year ago last June he was medically discharged from the Army, after three and one-half months. He has never been in jail, but he received two parking tickets the first week that he was in Johnstown. The boys like him and have already dubbed him "O'Leary."

We are glad to have these new teachers added to our faculty. We wish them good luck!

ACTIVE STUDENT

COUNCIL EXPECTED

This year we have a Student Council that shows great promise as Student Councils go. Its officers are: "Brick" Brickles, president; Bob Barrett, vice president; Margaret Kohler, secretary-treasurer.

Every year what kind of Council we have is always a question mark? Will it actually accomplish something, or will it be a figure-head? Will the representatives act magnanimously in deciding petty matters and thoughtfully in deciding important questions in school government? Or will the Council divide itself into groups of individuals constantly bickering with each other on petty matters while important issues go to pot? At the time of this writing the Council has met six or seven times, and although no major question has come up that the representatives have taken a stand on, Council has had its chance to show its true colors.

In comparison with the usually very rare important accomplishments of the past Councils, whether this year's Council will stand out from the rest remains to be seen.

CLASS OFFICERS CHOSEN

"Jake" Foust, the president of the Senior Class and one of our able football managers, is also a popular figure in the Senior Class. Bob Claycomb, the vice-president, is fond of football and congenial with all girls, especially certain "new ones." Shirley Boland, the treasurer, enjoys French fries especially with "Brick." Nellie Beam, who was elected secretary, likes typing and appears to be a future stenographer in the bud.

Wes Wallace, who was answering to "Splinter," was chosen president of the Junior Class. Wes has an interesting hobby collecting all kinds of pins. Gene Kauffman, vice-president, worked in the cemetery this summer and is a member of the football—and basketball squad. Hannah Robson, the treasurer, worked as a Junior Nurse's Aid this summer. We hope the finances of the class increase—how about it, Han? "Cindy" Dunckel is the secretary, and she collects china dolls. You often see her conversing with various members of the opposite sex—why, Cindy.

"Duvv" Cohoe, who spent his summer at Culver Military Academy, was elected president of the Sophomore class. He is a member of the photography club and an ardent musician. Dick Hornick, better known as "Finn" is vice president. He is a new member of our football squad and enjoys "passing time" with "Loie." Sheldon Hunter, who was elected treasurer, likes building model airplanes and hopes to make designing his life work. Paul McGill, secretary of the Sophomore class spent his vacation at camp enjoying swimming and tennis, but never-the-less, he didn't forget his social life.

John Hipp is president of the Freshman class. In school he favors getting out early—who doesn't? Bobby Hocker, vice president, spent his vacation at Camp Reynolds. He likes eating hamburgers and listening to Harry James. Kenneth Dorian, treasurer, loves football and separate studies if and when necessary. Herb Shearer is the secretary, and his major interest and talent is basketball in which he shows great ability.

W-U. Y. URGED TO COME

It's tonight!!!! It's the JACK-O-LANTERN JUMP." Our annual Hallowe'en dance sponsored by the Junior Class will begin this evening, promptly at 8:30. Be among those present! You'll be having a swell evening of enjoyment if you are, Jackson! ! !

In the line of entertainment we'll have Joe Rovida and his orchestra that will really send out with the solid numbers, both smooth and hot. Besides the usual Cake-Walk, that goes with every dance, there'll be some very new and startling innovations tonight. Door prizes head the list—next there will be entertainment provided by the certain talented students of the school, and if there are enough present, we'll have a little ballet enacted by the new members of the Hi-Y. Besides all this we'll have a very pleasant surprise for everyone during the course of the evening's entertainment. So, all in all, you can't miss having a bang-up time, Jackson! ! !

The various committees that got together to turn in such a wonderful job and assure this dance's success are as follows: Orchestra, Jack Coppersmith and Dick Ott; Program, Jack and Louis Coppersmith, Co-chairmen; Bob Kahl, Joan Engh, and Robert Livingston. This committee is the one that worked out the swell activities for tonight. The Decorations Committee has Bill Shahade as it's chairman, and Betty Lou Foust, Jim Kearney, Patsy Shiffer, Clayton Tyner, Gene Kauffman, Eileen Park, and Lucinda Dunckel.

We can't tell you about any of the decorations because the members of the committee have asked to have it kept a secret, but take it from us, they're something new and exciting. The advertising committee, which is responsible for the colorful posters you have seen around the school, has as chairman Elaine Sobol; the other members of this committee are Pat Shiffer, Betty Lou Foust, Peggy Rutledge and Pat Sharpe.

You all know a bargain when you see one, so let's see you all in attendance to start off the 1944-45 school dance year with a booming success.

STUDENT TICKET SALES LAG

Mr. Ackley in an interview with a Yodler reporter last week urged everyone in the High School to buy activities tickets.

He said, "Students who participate in band and sports should buy them just as well as those who sit on the sidelines. Since many athletic and musical scholarships are given because of participation in these activities, the participants should be willing to buy activities tickets in view of the opportunities offered. The sale of tickets is lagging this year as compared to last year and if the present slump continues several items that the school has planned to buy can not be bought, also certain student activities such as the Yodler, Phoenician, and Senior Play will suffer because of a decrease in the money allotted to them."

Every pupil is reminded that if he is not a member of the Activities Association he will not be eligible for an activities award at the senior assembly. Therefore every student is urged to show his school spirit by purchasing an activities ticket."

THE NEW YODLER

This year the YODLER is different. We are trying to make this a paper of the students of Westmont Hi. Among other things, we intend to have a bigger and better gossip column, more student opinion, and a more complete coverage of all sports and student activities than the YODLER has ever had in previous years. Under the capable direction of Miss Margaret Greer, our faculty advisor, the YODLER promises to be a well balanced and interesting paper providing spot news, gossip, news about the various organizations, and sports. Our staff as announced by Miss Greer is as follows:

Editor-in-Chief	John Horty
Managing Editor	Jack Coppersmith
Assistant Editors	Elaine Sobol
	James Horn
News Editor	Eileen Park
Sports Editor	James Kearney
Exchange Editor	Jack Leabhart
Make-up Editor	Louis Coppersmith
Assistants to Make-up Editor	Dick Ott
	Charlotte Krivulka
Business Managers	Brixner Boag
	Phil Louder
Feature Writers	Romayne Davies
Rosemary Wertz	Betty Lou Foust
Pat Sharpe	Bruce Ideson
Lois Baxendall	Jeanne Wolf
Reporters	Sam Shahade
Francis Conrad	Wes Wallace
Phyllis Ringler	Frances Thomas
Mary Jane Davis	Bob Clark
Jim Kerrigan	Clayton Tyner
Becky Evans	Lucinda Duncel
Rewriters	Hannah Robson
	Norma Lane
	Feature Writers—
Proofreaders (Chief)	Bob Kahl
Violet Ringler	Elaine Trindle
Shirley Englehart	Charlotte Reese
	Agnes Eash

With this staff plus two sophomore and freshman reporters yet to be chosen, the YODLER hopes that the paper it publishes has the interest and support of the student body.

HI-Y INDUCTS NEW MEMBERS

Amidst broken eggs and splattered floors, the Hi-Y Club initiated its new members: Roland Ciccone, Chuck Coulson, Jim Dyche, Bill Ewald, Bob Haberstroh, Albert Henze, John Hipp, Dick Hornick, Germain Letezia, Gerald McCormack, Sammy Salem, and Booge Strange.

You've probably noticed them running to the teachers for signatures. These fellows were mighty careful about their eggs. Some of the faculty just couldn't keep from breaking them accidentally (on purpose)! You've also seen them dancing so gracefully in the gym at noon. All this and the tough initiation on Wednesday night, October 4, enabled the twelve new members to enter a fine organization the hard way.

The new officers: Floyd Boyer, president; Tommy Carroll, vice-president; Jake Foust, secretary; Gene Ober, treasurer; and Bill Heilman, chaplain, are doing their best to make the Hi-Y an active club this year.

To assist the officers and members the Hi-Y Club is proud to have Mr. William A. Askey, a newcomer, as advisor this year. Mr. Askey (better known throughout the school as "O'Leary") is helping the club by his never-failing guidance to uphold the purpose and the platform of the Hi-Y.

GIRL RESERVES ORGANIZE FOR YEAR

New members of the Girl Reserves will never forget what they went through to join the organization. For two days these lowly creatures endured such embarrassments, ridicule, and detriments to their self-confidence as they never have been exposed to before. They really bore up under it remarkably well though, and the Girl Reserves are proud to enroll such good sports in the club. Several episodes in the gym were highly entertaining it seems but the high spot of the whole initiation was the party on Thursday night October 5. Most of the old and all of the new members were there. Everyone had a really bang-up time of it with the possible exception of those being initiated. An obstacle course was mild compared to the hardships and injustices of initiation night. The new members, in spite of what they had to undergo were very cooperative. Such new members will surely help to make the Girl Reserves organization an active one.

The Girl Reserves are very capable led this year by: Marion Ream, President; Joan Engh, Vice President; Marge Fornwalt, Secretary; Blanche Blozovitch, Treasurer. Among other projects the Club plans to raise money for a skating party. They intend to help the drive for Kits for Russia. Everyone wishes the Girl Reserves an active and fruitful year.

YODLER POLL

The Yodler has inaugurated a student poll to determine the opinion of the students on various subjects. The first poll was a questionnaire dealing with one act plays to be given by the junior class in assembly. A total of sixty-eight ballots out of a possible seventy were collected and tabulated, and the results represent a fairly accurate opinion of the junior class.

The class, as a whole, were decidedly in favor of having one act plays to be given by the juniors in assembly, although several questions have been raised. The juniors asked what faculty member would direct the plays, and they wanted someone that they felt would be interested in doing it. Although the class was almost overwhelmingly in favor of staging one act plays the number who would be acting them was slightly over one-half of the class. Some of the rest said they would assist in other ways. The junior class is considered representative of the whole school, and we feel they express the opinion of the student body. The Yodler plans to hold other polls in the future and we hope that the students will suggest subjects for these polls.

Below are the percentages in favor of the questions on the poll.

Do you want the junior class to put on one act plays in assembly	91%
Will you act in the plays?	57%
Will you help in other ways?	18%
Don't know	5%

NICKNAME WANTED FOR W-U. Y. TEAMS

The Yodler is very sorry to learn that the football and basketball teams do not have an interesting name. During the past years our teams have been tabbed with various nicknames by the Johnstown papers, such as: "The Red and Gray Warriors" or "The Enghmen" while other schools throughout the district have eye-catching names like: "The Trojans," "Yellow Jackets," "Golden Tigers," and "The Crimson Crusher. Therefore, the Yodler feels that some appropriate name should be found to call our teams. So come on students, it's up to you to pick the name. Let's go. Make YOUR suggestions known by putting them in the Yodler box in the library.

NEWS ABOUT ALUMNAE

... Morty Glosser, '44, former Yodler and Phoenician photographer, recently won recognition as an up and coming photographer by capturing two first prizes and one second in the Johnstown Camera Club exhibition. Morty is at present a buck private in the Army of the United States.

... Recently seen home on furlough were Harold Mishler, '41 and Lieutenant "Chiz" Campbell, '42. Chiz, by the way, was supposedly awaiting embarkation for parts unknown, but his orders somehow switched and at present he's an instructor at West Point for cadets taking basic training.

... W-U. Y. Navy men home on leave: Stan Reisman, '44, who just completed his boot training and has received his assignment to Navy Primary Radar School at Chicago.

... "Stretch" Werry, '44, was seen talking things over with Miss Greer in the library.

... Seen on the football bench during the Bedford game—Paul Raffensperger, '44, and Bob Yost, '43. Reminiscent of old times, eh, kids?

... Dan Campbell, '44 is doing all right for himself at Pitt—in more ways than one. We see he manages to get home every weekend and Danny and a certain Smitty from Johnstown have become regular Saturday night customers at Ripple's.

... That's all for this time. By the way, don't forget to drop any interesting bits of information about the alumnae in the Yodler box in the library—so we can make this a permanent column.

THIS MONTH'S SHORT STORY

"What Can You Do About It"

Betty meets Herb in front of the school at 4:00. She coyly begins her play by asking: "Oh, Herb, which way are you walking home?"

Herb mumbles: "Football practice."

This does not put Betty off her prey. She gushes, "I'd just love to watch football practice. Will you walk me home after practice?"

"Maybe," answers Herb in his usual tone.

"Which reminds me, Herb, I couldn't take my eyes off 'Fin.' He looks so cunning with those big shoulder pad."

"Yeah."

"Herb, who was the statue in the Statue of Liberty play?"

"Huh."

"Oh skip it. I didn't mean to cut in on secrets."

"Yeah."

"And, Herb, you fellows don't seem to realize that it is difficult to get laundry work done. Look, how 'Brick' fell in the mud at Ebensburg. There were lots of cleaner places on the field. Isn't Heilman and Ober wonderful contrasting combination? Coach Engh couldn't have selected two who look better together; Bill is so dark and Gene is so light. But I couldn't see why everybody said they were making passes at each other. I thought they were friends."

At this point Herb is speechless. And so before Herb loses his mind I will leave you.

(Author's note: Anyone who thinks we're a "little off the bean" is perfectly correct.)

STUDENT ARTICLES WANTED

Attention Students: Since we're striving to make the Yodler a paper belonging to the whole school, we want you to drop any articles you may write along with your name in the Yodler box in the library. These write-ups can be articles of petition, letters to the Editors, or can be about sports or school life. C'mon now, don't be backward—let's write them—it's your paper.

COACH ENGH SAYS TEAM SHOWS GREAT PROMISE

Coach Engh, in his interview with the Yodler, seemed confident of a successful season . . . that is, if nothing unexpected occurs . . . which of course leaves us with a big question mark.

But, after taking a look at the team, it seems as if we, too, can be pretty confident, for to begin with we have two veterans of three years standing . . . Bill Heilman and Gene Ober, Heilman, our triple threat man, who can kick, run, and pass equally well as sparking the backfield, while Ober is doing a swell job as right end. The tackles, Clayton Tyner and Cecil Brickles, are also the heaviest men on the team. The line is completed with "Bugsie" Carroll and Albert Heinze, who was replaced by Dick Hornick when he was hurt, as guards, Dick Hunter and Lynn Engh, who are holding down the left end position, and Dave Coulson as center. All are doing a bang-up job. Advancing to the backfield again, we have "Boogie" Strange, a newcomer, showing much promise as fullback; Floyd Boyer, the fastest man on the team, as right half; and Bob Barret, the quarterback, who takes the brunt of the blocking.

The second team, too, shows a lot of promise and they are gaining a lot of valuable experience with each game. They have a fine bunch of freshmen and sophomores out, which leads us to believe Coach Engh will keep putting out fine Red and Gray teams.

We certainly can't forget the managers who are headed this year by Jake Foust and "Reggie" Parsons. Bill Ewald, Dave Rohrer, and Jack Bennet complete the "squad." They are all doing a fine job in keeping up the team's spirit, as well as attending to their other duties.

That is the complete 1944 line-up. The student body is behind you, team, and wishes you a banner season!

SENIORS COP FOOTBALL CROWN

The boys' intramurals will continue this year with all four classes competing collectively or individually against each other. The activities planned for the year are football, volleyball, basketball, mushball, foul shooting, and pingpong.

The football contest has already been completed with the seniors winning an easy victory. The sophs came in second, with the juniors trailing behind in last place. The games were played in the noon hour under the direction of Mr. McIlhenny.

Volleyball will start as soon as the weather becomes cold with three teams from each class competing. Last year the sophomores were victorious. The basketball competition is held during December, January, and February. It is always eagerly awaited and the results are always uncertain until the last basket is shot. The mushball games will start in the spring and future major leaguers are then given a chance to show their stuff. The pingpong and foul shooting contests, the only tournaments which are won by individuals, follow. Last year Harold Faverty copped the pingpong title, while Ray Shahade came out on top in the foul shooting.

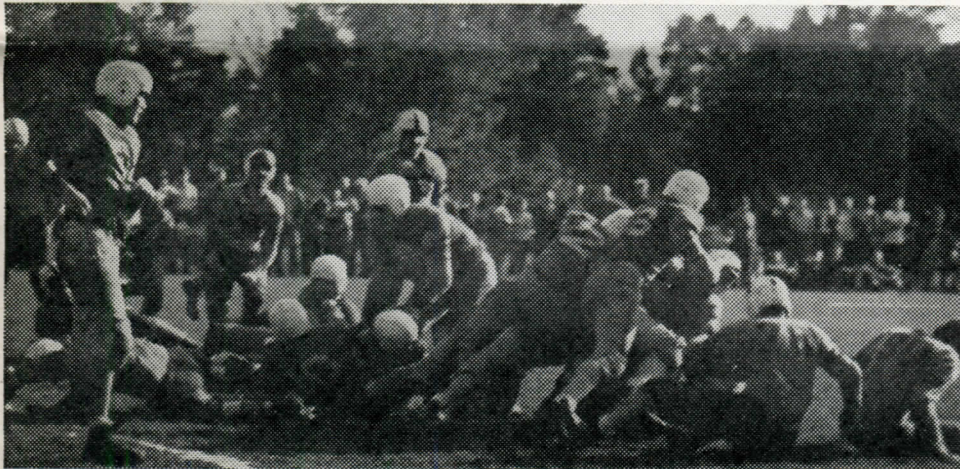

This year we are again looking forward to a very successful intramural season.

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS START

For the second successive year Elaine Sobol won the girls' tennis tournament with Eileen Park runner-up. The games were played on the Westmont courts. Only four girls entered the contest, but the competition proved to be very keen, since they had been diligently practicing all summer.

The archery tournament was completed with Joy Robinson as winner. She will receive 100 points towards her letter while each of these will receive 50 points: Eugene Robinson, Betty Kleinstub, and Charlotte Bacha.

The ping-pong and badminton tournaments are being played off now and by the looks of things, there is some stiff competition ahead. Deck tennis teams will be organized as soon as these tournaments are completed.

MANY NEW STUDENTS SEEN AT W-U.Y.

Many new students are seen hurrying through the halls at W-U. Y. Here are a few things about them so that you may know them better.

Our only new senior is JOAN NUGENT whose hobby is horseback riding and she also likes to dance (especially with "Gene"). "Jeff" has brown eyes and dark brown hair and she is usually found somewhere near the Corner Store. Her favorite class is English and she plans to study journalism after graduation. "Jeff" thinks Glenn Miller is "tops" when it comes to orchestras and "Stardust" is her favorite song.

MARY KATHRYN McFEATERS is a rather tall, blue-eyed junior from room 308. As to orchestras she has no favorite and she likes to hear any song that makes her feel romantic or sentimental—especially "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes." I found out from "a little birdie" that "Kay" sings to herself so I know we will give her a chance to use her vocal chords before very long. One thing "Kay" dislikes is a "cueball" (boy with a crew cut)—is that why you never got one Boyer? ???

Brownette PAT SHARPE is planning to be an artist so that makes art her favorite class. Tommy Dorsey rates high with her and "Stardust" is her standing favorite song. Her hobby is handicrafts and she likes to dance more than anything else. Pat's favorite food is none other than pretzels. Pat is usually seen at all the football games—it couldn't be because of Barrett, or could it! ! !

Another future artist is PEGGY RUTLEDGE but her favorite class is study. Peggy has no hobby but she likes to swim and hang around Kredel's. Glenn Miller is her favorite orchestra and she thinks "I'll Walk Alone" is just "out of this world." Peggy enjoys getting her vitamins from spaghetti but one thing she doesn't like is to have boys ignore her.

We have a simply "droolsome" blonde in our school. He is tall RICHARD HORNICK who is a sub on our football team. Dick's hobby is building airplanes and his favorite food is chocolate cake (get out your cookbooks, girls). "Finn" thinks Tommy Dorsey has a "super" orchestra and "Together" is his No. 1 tune. He likes W-U. Y. better than the school he attended before and World History is his favorite class here.

"Senorita" REGINA ZOPPA is called so because her favorite class is Spanish. Jean enjoys listening to Harry James and her favorite song is "The Day After Forever." In way of sports her choice goes to basketball which she likes to play and also watch. By way of bribery "yours truly" discovered that she has a deep interest in a dark-haired junior from room 309! ! !

HUBERT STRANGE hails from "deep in the heart of Texas" but he likes W-U. Y. better. He is almost six feet tall and is found most frequently around the Corner Store. "Boogie's" favorite class is algebra but he'd rather play football—and who wouldn't if they could play as "neat" as he? ? ? "Boogie" is an Artie Shaw fan and "Night and Day" is No. 1 on his Hit Parade. After graduation he plans to follow the steps of his father—Navy, of course.

WAR BOND DRIVE OPENS

This year the War Bond drive, which started on October 15th, is under the direction of Harry Coulson. It will feature competition between the home rooms, the Girl Reserves, and the Hi-Y. Last year the drive was fairly successful although in comparison with some of the other schools, it was poor. Some of the students did not even show any enthusiasm in the drive. So come on students, let's show the people of Westmont and Johnstown what our High School can do towards supporting the war effort.

IN MEMORIAM

CHARLES DELL

Charles Dell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dell, was killed the 8th of June, 1944 in Normandy, France. He attended Westmont-Upper Yoder High School until November 2nd, 1942 when he transferred to Franklin High School. His training consisted of engineering and clerical work.

From a fox-hole "Somewhere in France" one of his friends writes, as it rains, "Chuck is buried in France on a hill for which we fought. He is not alone though because one of his closest friends is beside him. I cannot say more now."

Another buddy from basic training days near Washington writes from the Aleutians. "Among us we have much slang, such as 'He's a good Joe' or 'He's in,' if we like a person and he is a regular fellow. This all adds up to tell us that Chuckie "was in."

JAMES E. OGLE

Lt. James E. Ogle, twenty-six, son of the late Earl Ogle, attorney, and Mrs. Ogle, Westmont, was accidentally killed July 16th, 1944 while serving with the Navy. He was graduated from Westmont-Upper Yoder High School in 1936 and took part in many of the activities of the school.

In his four years at Westmont, Lt. Ogle was a member of the Biology Club, the Yodler staff, the Phoenician staff and in his senior year was representative to the Student Council. He also took part in the senior play and the operetta of 1936.

Other members of the family in the service of our country are: Lt. Charles, class of 1934, bombardier in the army air forces; Alexander, class of 1942, with the Navy and John, class of 1939 in the Merchant Marines; Jere left recently for Great Lakes where he will prepare for his appointment to Annapolis.

Joan, class of 1940, and Peter are at home with Mrs. Orgle.

CLASSES HOLD PARTIES

The Junior class party, which was held on Friday evening October 6, was a great success. Almost all the juniors attended and they enjoyed the songs of "Enky" Englehart and Kay McFeaters. Charlotte Krivulka also played some "jazz" pieces which really showed that the juniors have some promising musicians. There was a cake walk with Shirley Englehart and Carl Wolf being the lucky people to win it. The refreshments were delicious and everyone had as much as he could eat. Mr. and Mrs. Ott, Miss Singer, and Miss Gerhardt were the faculty members and with the students, they enjoyed the party very much.

The fast rising sophomores also had a very successful party on October 11, and really showed the other classes that the sophomores can do it. There was dancing and refreshments for all and most of the class was present to participate.

The senior class party will be held later in the year.

Photography Club Starts Work

The Photography Club members this year are planning to make their club an interesting and educational one. They intend to teach all the shutter bugs how to take and develop all kinds of pictures. A dark room will be built and fully equipped for instruction in these various activities. The instructor will be one who is well informed in this type of work. The president, Bert Murrie, is an incurable camera addict and will be seen in various parts of the school snapping candid shots. Only one meeting has been held, but it was full of suggestions for its members. The Photography Club looks forward to having a very successful season under its capable officers.

NIGHT WORK

That's a nice identification bracelet you're wearing, Mary Jane!

Hey, Parsons! A "Be Be" is waiting for you.

What can the reason be for Kay's sudden interest ins "Boogie"-woogie lately?

"Habby" has been seen "Wolf"ing out Luzerne Street Extension way! ! !

Betty Ruth appears as "Gerky" as ever! ! !

Barrett has become pretty "Sharpe" this year! ! !

Redheads appeal to you, eh Hannah? ? ?

The Hartley to Hornick combination has been seeing a lot of Ripple's lately! ! !

Those letters from Notre Dame's Varsity left half must be very thrilling, Boo! ! !

Don't you think Chemistry class is a better place to experiment with peroxide, Toni? ? ?

Quoting our new senior this year, "I don't date anyone." What about Gene? I wouldn't call him "nothing," Joan! ! !

Englehart has been "Sell"ing out our high school! ! !

Who was "Squirrel's" frequent visitor at Windber hospital?—And we're not referring to the doctor, either.

Who's the senior from Johnstown you've been going out with during the, summer, Jacob? ? ?

Joan can't seem to make up her mind whether it's Leabhart or Dean.

It seems "Brick's" coupe can always hold one more! ! !

We are glad to learn that Selma Zasofsky and Shirley Ashcom are back in school after their recent illnesses.

STUDENT COMMENTS

Westmont needs a "Flamingo." If you went to Ebensburg to see our football game and happened to watch or follow their students after the game, you know about Ebensburg's "Flamingo." It is a combination dance floor and restaurant somewhat like "Ripples" where the Ebensburg youth have a lot of fun. It isn't way out of town like "Ripples," and it has a few very clever ideas put to use. Did someone say that we have two "haunts" already? But the Corner Store and Lewis's are too small; there is no dancing room; and they close rather early. If we could fix up a "Flamingo" near our school, it would eliminate the trouble of cars to go somewhere after a dance or some such occasion. If we had a "Flamingo" to spend time in, we wouldn't loiter in the streets till late hours. One person suggested that the senior class use this idea for a project. Maybe the house next to the Corner Store, that was once a store, might be an ideal place for a "Flamingo." All of this sounds like a good new idea to me. What do you think?
