Over and above at the feeker that presses upon one as he reads the columns in the daily journals that tell of the certible disaster at Johnstown and her neighboring villages is the helplessness of man, woman and child when confescated with the grighty forces of physical enature jet least and started upon their career of destraction. The awful details make the heart sick. The people week-cuight without warnings the midst of their pursuits. Human nature was displayed in 1st grandest light in the numerous is stances of personal heroism and courage. Flore than one have man risked his life in trying to save those engulfed is the awful cell of water which THE TOLD IT SURVIVORS came sweeping down the meantain and through the valley with a force far beyond that of the great estaract at Niagara. Sons stood back for fathers and methers and were lost while the parents were gaken out. Many a dear brother found a watery grave that a loving sister anight be saved. The stores by survivers and thrilling escapes are in many instances most remarkable and almost beyond belief.

almost beyond belief.

A man named Dougherty tells a thrilling story of a ride down the river on a log. When the waters struck the root of the house on which he had taken shelter he jumped astride a telegraph pole, riding a distance of some twenty-three miles from Johnstown to Bolivar before he was rescoed.

The eight children of James McMillan, The eight children of James McMillan, the youngest of which is 10 mouths old, were in their house on Lincoln street in Johnstown. The famile was in the attic when the flood came. Each of the large shildren grasped a smaller one, and the family got to the root. The jam of houses unde it possible for them to walk frem joof to roof until they reached the Morrell Educational Institute, where they stayed sill next day. They suffered greatly from annest. One of the children kept the baby slive by moistening its lips with his finger, which he from time to time dipped in the vater.

At Pine Creek, seventy-five miles from Johnstown, a child not more than a year-old was found alive in the drift which had come down from the scene of the great disaster. It had been floating for thirty hours. It is almost a miracle how this mite of humanity escaped death in such a raging torrent after a journey of seventy-five miles, while many thousands of sturdy men and women met their death in the twinkling of an eye.

The family of C. Kress have reason to remember their four big St. Bernard dogs.

member their four big St. Bernard dogs. Mr. Kress, his wife and three children were Mr. Kress, his wife and three children were tossed about by the angry waters. Their youse turned over and over, and each time it the family but Kress were washed into he water. The dogs sprang into the water as each member of the family slipped in and in an instant had the unfortunate person on the house again. Over trees, heavy brush, and through dangers of every kind the animals dashed to save their masters family. When the house approached the shore one of the dogs towed Mrs. Kress ashore. The rest of the family also escaped with the assistance of the d gs. Mr. Kress says he lost $100,000 in the food, but he thinks far more of his dogs than of his wealth.

of his wealth.

of his wealth.

of his wealth.

of Mr. D. J. Duncan, superintendent of the Johnstown Passenger Rali-way Company, had a narrow escape. One dangiter, Flanche, was rescued from the floating dabris at Cambria City on the right

SERVING INFORMATION OF LOVED OWN. ank of the stream. A half mile below chastewn a second daughter, Miss Masse, so close they could see hig tears on her Johnstewn a second daughter, Miss Masse, was drawn out of the water alive and is well. At Morrelisville, on the left bank, one mile below Johnstown, a third daughter—Elvira, with a little 6-months-old child in her arms with a little 6-months-old child in her arms —reached the roof of a feating building, and was carried by it up *tony creek to Kerinville, a mile and a half above Johnstown on the extreme opposite portion of the town from which they started. Miss Elvira states that the building on which they succeeded in inding refuge was turned over and over a number of times before it settled, but so slowly that she was enabled to a good one. A railroad tie was so curred and one of the man from which she was rescued 8th roof one. A railroad tie was so cured and one of the man from which she was rescued 8th roof with the building morning. Hardly had she reached the shore when she was received by her overly gend one. A railroad tie was so curred and one of the men faste word of the shore when she was received by her overlyed mother, who had also a most thrilling and wonderful escape. She had doated on the debris in the milst of the army of floating houses which went up Stony creek and was wafted through the second to man fast potention, from which she was received by her overlyed mother, who had also a most thrilling and wonderful escape. She had doated on the debris in the milst of the army of floating houses which went up Stony creek and was wafted through the second the crue of the crue blows she was received by her overlyed mother, who had also a most thrilling and wonderful escape. She had doated on the debris in the milst of the army of floating houses which went up Stony creek and was wafted through the second the crue of the crue and one of the men fast produced the crue and one of the men fast produced the crue and one of the men fast produced the shore when she was received by his grief, committed the crue and one of the men fast produced the crue and one of the m tied, but so slowly that she was enabled to follow its movements and keep in a safe position, from which she was rescued Saturday morning. Hardly had she renched the shore when she was received by her overjoyed mother, who had also a most thrilling and wonderful escape. She had fosted on the debris in the midst of the army of floating houses which went up Stony creek and was wafted through the second stary window of a brick school-house in ere in the attic and would have been used, but a locomotive was huried through the louse and knocked it down. The sur-tying member of the family has tince opm-dited suicide.

wiring member of the family has disce committed suicide.

The nights and sounds beard that night were, the most painful that human beings were seer called upon to endure, in the darksons could be distinguished human beings were seen to be to be the committed of the courage. About 9 o'clock a big raft awept by the willinge within 100 yardsofthe shore. Therewas an entire family on it, and they were sainging "Nearer, My God, to;Thee." In the suided of their song the raft struck a large tree and went to splinters IThere were one or two wild cries and then silence.

Mrs. Mary Fenn stood by a muddy-gool of water trying to find some trace of a once happy shome. A reporter saked see concerning her loss. She said she was left alone, her husband and seven children being swopt-away. She continued:

"We were diven by the restee food: toto corrust ner ross. One and are was set alone, her husband and seven children, being swopt away. She continued:

"We were driven by the raging floot into the garret, but the waters followed us there. Inch. by tach it kept rising until, our heads were crushing against the roof. It was death, to remain. So I raised a placed was done by one placed my darlings on some driftwood, trusting to the Great Creater. As Iliberated the last one, my awest little key, he looked at me and and: "Mamma, year silways told me that the £ord would care for me: will He look afterme new? I saw him drift away with his lowing shoe turned toward-me, and with a prayer on gry lips for his deliverance he passed from night forever. The next moment the roof crasked in and i floated outs de to be rescued fitteen bours later fram the roof of a house in Kern-ville. If I could only find one of my darlings I could how to the will of God. But they are all goon."

could how to the will of God. But they are all gone."

Near the coulder of the city were these persons pulling apart the debris as best they could. They were an elderly woman, a young woman, quite pretty, and a little girl, all dressed in mourning. A reporter stopped to watch them for a moment, when suddenly the little girl cried: "O, mamma, here's something." Both women hurried over as the child held up a water stained photograph album. "Yes, that's owne" cried the younger of the women as she feverishly seized than degracied turn the, dirty and water-swollen leaves. All three sat down on an uprooted tase, near by, and they water swollen leaves. All three sat down on an uprooted tase, near by, and they water swollen leaves. All three sat down on an uprooted tase, near by, and they water swollen leaves. All three sat down on an uprooted tase, near by, and they water swollen leaves. All three sat down on an uprooted trans. They want her handker. They younger one turned to the first picture in the album and carefully whate the other two located over her shoulder. "I thought we had lost it "she said."

withe the other two locked over her shoul-der. "I thought we had lost it," she said, der. "I thought we had lost it," she said, as it: tears trickled down her face. In the gray dusk of that fatal Friday evening a crowd of people stood upon the bridge at Bolivar trying do rescue the unfortunates as they were carried down by the fand. Ropes were dangling from the bridge for those in the water to grasp. One poor woman's plight was even so piteour that even strong men wept. She was sitting high and dry on a subatantial pile of timber that was bearing her down stream rapidly. On each side of her lay a little child. They were still and made use outery as the woman clasped them close. As the craft neared the bridge the spectators saw that the children were dead. They had been drowned. The tope was thrown to the rigid woman, but she would pay no abention to it "Grab the rope!" a hundred voices shouted. The unfortunate creature looked at the two children and tried to rouse them, but they had dropped into an eternal slumber. "Grab the rope!" the crowd again yelled excitedly, for the wreckage with its dead and living freight was very nearly under the bridge. The woman heeded not the advice or the voices. She looked indifferently at the strained eyes of the men above, and as she passed under the bridge with unconcern it was seen she was insane, crazed by griet.

A PICTURE OF DESCLATION

A man, woman and child were seen floating down on a lot of drift. The mass of debris commenced to part, and by desperate effort the husband succe-dealing exting his wife and little one on a floating tree. Just then the tree washed under a bridge and a rope was thrown out, It fell over the man's shoulders. He saw at a glance that he could not save his dear ones, so he threw the means of safety to one side and grasped be could not save his dear ones. so he threw the means of safety to one side and grasped closer in his arms those who were with him. A moment later and the tree struck a floating house. It turned over, and in a moment all were swept to their fate.

Watchers in a railway signal tower near Sang Hollow tell many piteous tales of what they saw. Men and women in dozens, in pairs and singly, children, boys big and little, and wee babies passed there in among the awful confusion of water—drowning, passing a truggling and fighting desperais. the awful confusion of water—drowning, gasping, struggling and fighting desperately for life. Two men on a tiny raft shot into the swiftest part of the current. They crouched stolidly, looking at the shores, while between them, dressed in white and kneeling with her face turned heavenward, was a girl 6 or 7 years old. She seemed stricken with paralysis until she came opposite the tower, and then she turned her face to the operator. She was so close they could see hig tears on her so close they could see big tears on her cheeks, and her pallor was as death. The

THE DELUGE.

Stories of the Grent Flood at Johnstown.

Therilling: Accounts of Mannew Eccape Sold-by Survivers—Sinap Deeds of certain—Pathetic Residents of the World Blanator.

The no hackneyed utterance to say that pen can set depict the borrarest fit with disastem—biolocaust and deluge—with which ship-toyumen for the deep amotion that apring from the heart of every man wallender of the borrarest fit with which ship-toyumen for the deep amotion that apring from the heart of every man away the homes and desiryed the lives of the thousand of happy and prosperous in habitants of the stricken region, and the fames which fed ravenously upon the bug mass of debets which gatheted at the fatal bridge in Johnstown, and the hundreds of the stricken region, and the fames which fed ravenously upon the bug mass of debets which gatheted at the fatal bridge in Johnstown and Chatwowth and Astabuta alone fully realize the insignificance of human life In take lottes, and by article from the ment of deeds of beroise passed unrecorded sate ophityton—hundred of the stricken region, shabitant and the term of the stricken region and the s be known on earth. Mothers went to death rather than accept saleation without the children who clang to them Brave men relinquished their chances of escape into the hands of the soft he weaker sex whose pittiful-crice for assistance fell upon their ears. Steries of miraculous escapes are told by men, women and children who reached places of refuge after texible experiences in the avial flood. To these who find for the worker seems in the avial flood. To these who find to friends in the death-list these narrations prove mext readable.

Cartis Williams and his wife were carried on top-of their roof from Woodvale. Their on top-of their roof from Woodvale. Their on top-of their roof from Woodvale. Their collins and get them carried the best way on top of their roof from Woodvale. Their house struck the Catholic church in Johns-town and they climbed to the roof of that delifies. They remained these until the building took fire, when they made their way from toof to roof to the kill back of Laborton.

Johnstown.
Michael Rouesen, an Irishman, tells a most wonderful story of his escape. He floated with the tide for some time, when he was strack with some floating timber and borne underneath the water. When he came up he was struck again, and at last he was caught my a lightning rod and held there for over two hours, when he was there for over two hours, when he was finally rescued.

Tommy Brown, a little 14-year-old youngster, his mother, brother and the 6-weeks-old halv were in the upper floor of their house when the crash came. After many afforts the lad succeeded in getting the family on the soof and they tere down the stream with the current. The roof was parted in a few minutes and Tommy saw his sick mother and brother go down in the water. He made an effort to save them, but they were too far out, and he was compelled to turn his attention to the babe. The pair floated to the mills in Mill-wille, where they landed on a heap of debria.

them, but they were too far out, and be was compelled to turn his attention to the babe. The pair floated to the mills in Millwille, where they inaded on a heap of debris.

"No one will ever know the real borrors of this accident unless he saw the burning people and debris beside the stone bridge" remarked liev. Father Trautmein; "the horrible nature of the affair can not be realized by any person who did not witness the scene. As soon as possible after the first great crash occurred I hastened to the building. A thousand persons were struggling in the ruins and imploring for God's sake to release them. Frantic husbands and fathers stood at the edge of the furnee that was slowly heating to a cherry heat and inclin-

A RUNDEED PUNERALA

of an apple-tree after having remained there for two hours. He was a woman, evidently mother, who had also a most thilling scaepe and wonderful escape. She she follows the floating houses which went up Stony erock and was wafted through the second tory window of a brick school-house in another portion of the twon, where she remained the word of the two schools and the second tory window of a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the two who is a brick school-house in another portion of the school while the portion of the school house in a brick schoo

REFUGEES ON THE BILLSIDE

RETUGERS ON THE HILLSIDE; some tears and a few more of the dead thousands were buried in Mother Earth.

Mrs. Ogle was the Western Union telegraph operator at Johnstown for twenty years. Her daughter, Minnie, was her assistant. She was at hor post when the flood came. Her last message was one of warning to those lower down in the valley. She could have escaped with her daughter and two other assistants had she selfishly minded the first warnings that came over the two other assistants had she selfishly mind-ed the first warnings that came over the wire, but she ordered that no one leave the office until the valley was warned. All heroically stood their ground and were lost. A wealthy young Philadelphian named Ogle recently became engaged to a Johns-town lady, Miss Carrie blehl. They were to be wedded in the middle of June, and both parties were preparing for the ceremony. The lover heard of the terrible flood, but, knowing that the residence of his dear on stood at the edge of the furnace that was slowly heating to a cherry heat and incinerating human victims. Every one was anxious to save his own relatives, and raved, cursed and blasphemed until the air appeared to tremble. One man, who was trying to steer a float upon which his wife sat on a mattress, lost his hold, and in a moment the craft swept into a sea of fame and never again appeared. The agony of that man was simply heartrending.

The lover heard of the terrible flood, but, knowing that the residence of his dear one strying to steer a float upon which his wife sat on a mattress, lost his hold, and in a moment the craft swept into a sea of fame and never again appeared. The agony of that man was simply heartrending visiting in the valley when the wave came," was the mournful reply, then he beckoned the young man to enter the chamber of you see them go down; they will come back for the wedding to-night. She has gone for

RAILROAD WRECK IN IRELAND.

A Sunday School Eccurates Train Wrached—Seventy-two Passengers Killed and Many Injured.

DUBLIK, June 13.—A train from Armagh has been wrecked near that place. Many children were killed and a number injured. The train contained 1,20 persona Methodist Sunday school scholers, their teachers and relatives. They were going on an excursion to Warren Point, a watering place at the mouth of the Newry river, in County Down. Seveniy bodies have already been taken from the wreck and there are others buried under the debris. Over a hundred of the passengers were injured. The excursion party left Armagh on two trains. The accident occurred at a point where the trains had to ascend a grade on a bank fifty feet high. The first train ascended the grade without trouble. The second section attempted the ascent, but the weight of the train proved too great for the engine and several cars were detached and allowed to run back toward the level track, but before they reached it they came in collision with an ordinary train from Armagh, which was proceeding at a good rate of speed. The excursion cars were completely wrecked. The scens which ensued was heartrending. Hosts of volunteers were soon at hand and the dead and wounded were taken from the wreck and carried down the bank. Medical aid was called and a special train from Belfast brought to the scens twenty surgeons from that city and a number of medical men from other places between Belfast and Armagh. The disaster is unparalled in the railroad bistory of Ireland, and at Armagh all the shaps were closed yesterday afternoon and the people were in general mourning. The ongineer, fireman and guard of the train and traffic manager's cierk were summoned before a magistrate and were remanded on the charge of being responsible for the accident.

summoned before a magistrate and were remanded on the charge of being responsible for the accident.

An secount of the disaster says the engineer of the second train finding his engine poweriess to pull the train up the steep grade unlinked several of the cars with the object of taking the front portion of the train to the next station and returning for the remainder. Heavy stones were placed behind the wheels of the detached cars to prevent them from slipping, but the locomotive on restarting gave the whole train a shunt and displaced the stones. The result was that the detached stones. The result was that the detached cars began to slip backward down the grade, their speed gradually increasing until they had attained a frightful ve-locity. After running four miles they crushed with terrific force into the third train at a point about a mile and half from Armagh.

The train consisted of fifteen carriages

The train consisted of fifteen carriages. The bulk of the children were in the front portion of the train and only about a dozen children were killed. The majority of the victims were about twenty years of age. They were in the last carriage, which was completely smashed. Many of the occupants jumped from the windows and escaped with slight injuries before the collision.

All the bodies have now been taken from the wreck and the total killed has been found to be 72, of which 63 bave toen identified.

THE PROCTOR MURDER.

Two of the Atchison County Farmer's Neighbors Arrested.
Archison, Kan., June 13 —Edward Siler and James Wiley have been arrested for the murder of W. W. Proctor on his farm in the northwest part of this county a short time ago. Siler was Proctor's nearest neighbor, their farms joining. The neighbors assert that Siler and Proctor were not on friendly terms, and that they had frequent wrangles over a line of fence and over Proctor's cattle trespassing on Siler's lands. These quarrels of fence and over Proctor's cattle trespassing on Siler's lands. These quarrels—coupled with conflicting stories and damaging statements made by Wiley, Siler's bired man, recently, while on a visit to Missouri, together with certain other facts in possession of the county attorney—were deemed of sufficient weight to justify the arrest of Siler and Wiley. The theory of the murder now is that several weekago Proctor and Siler engaged in a quarrel. Both men being quick-tempered, they came to blows, and in the altercation Proctor was shot. His body was carried to his house, and his throat cut to create the impression that he had committed suicide. Siler, who is well-to-do, came to Atchison from Platte County, Mo., about eight years ago. He has always borne a eight years ago. He has always borne a good reputation. Wiley has also hereti-fore borne a good name, although but lit-tle is known of his anteceden;s. Money For Sorghum Experiments.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Last year Congress appropriated $100,000 to be used by the Department of Agriculture in experimenting with sorghum cane as a sugar producer. Of this sum less than $15,000 was so expended, and Congress gave the department the unexpended balance to continue the work. Secretary Rusk yesterday decided to expend the entire terday decided to expend the entire was the mournin reply, then he beckened the young man to enter the chamber of death. A moment later Mr. Ogle was kneeling beside a rough bier and was kissing the cold, white face. From the lifteless finger he slipped a thin, gold ring, and in its place put one of his own. Then he stole quiestly out—one of the thousands made to mourn by the bursting of the South Fork dam.

The most pathetic case yet brought to light is that of James Elgin. He had come to Johnstown to attend the wedding of his sister Ellen. He know of the fact that a terrible disaster had taken place, but had no idea that his family was involved. His agony may be imagined rather than described when learning on his arrival that his mother and three sisters had been drowned and his father demented over the terrible affliction. The old gentieman was crying like a child and asking those he met: "Did you see them? Did you see them? Did you see them? Did you see them? Did you see them go down; they will come back."

Ten Thousand Killed.

San Francisco, June 13.—The steamer City of Sydney, which has just arrived find you see them go down; they will come back.

Cal.

Ten Thousand Killed.

San Frascisco, June 13 — The steamer City of Sydney, which has just arrived from Kokohama and Hong-Kong, brings tidings that the Shanghai Mercury of May 10 publishes the news received from its correspondent at Chung-King, who writes that Luchow, a city of some importance in Szohnen, situated on the upper Yangtze, is nearly destroyed by fire. The conflagration broke out on the evening of Yangtze, is nearly destroyed by fire. The confingration broke out on the evening of the eighth day of the third moon, and burned furiously till the tenth. Seven out of the eight gates are said to be destroyed, and the loss of life, trampled to death and burnt, is estimated at not less than 10,000.

Under Military Rule.

Johnstown, Pa., June 13.—The borough of Johnstown and the surrounding towns are now under military rule. At seven o'clock yesterday morning General Hastings took charge and soldiers were placed on guard duty at all the commissary sta-tions and morgues. Every thing is tur-moil and confusion and little or no work

The Hostetter Stangerh Bitter People Score Another Point. In the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York, Judge Ship-man handed down an opinion a few days ago in the suit of the owners of the trade ago in the suit of the owners of the trade marks covering Hostetter's Stomach Bitters against Arnold Theller and Cornell Theller, the compounders located on Vesey street. New York City, in which it was decided that, although the defendants made use of their own names on the labels affixed to the bettles containing bitters prepared by them, yet as they were evidently designed to imitate the Hostetter labels, they were interested, and as perpetual injunction was grasted and an accounting of damages ordered, together with the costs of the suit. It is the evident intention of the Hostetter people to protect their valuable trade mark against all infringers.

Matters of Importance.

They were in the conservatory at an evening party, and there, amid the perfume of the roses and posies, he had fervently declared his passion. "Mr. Sampson, George," she reponded, with womanly tenderness, my heart has been wholly yours for onths, and now," she went on, shyly taking his arm, "you may take me in to supper; I heard it announced when you first began those words of love which have so blissfully changed all the colors of my life."—Harper's Bazar.

-Cowboy-"Say you! Do you run this engine?" Locomotive engineer-"Yes. What can I do for you?" Cow-boy-"I want a situation as cow-catcher. I've been on a ranch for the ast ten years."—Boston Herald.

A Plece of Her Mind.

A lady correspondent has this to say:
"I want to give a piece of my mind to a certain class who object to advertising when it costs them any thing—this won't cost them a cen't. It suffered a living death for nearly two years with headaches, backache. them a cent. I suffered a living death for nearly two years with headaches, backache, in pain standing or walking, was being literally drugged out of existence, my misery increased by drugging. At last, in despair, I committed the sin of trying an advertised medicine, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and it restored me to the blessedness of sound health. I honor the physician who, when he knows he can cure, has the moral courage to advertise the fact." The medicine mentioned is guaranteed to cure those delicate diseases peculiar to females. Read printed guarantee on bottle-wrapper.

For all derangements of the liver, stom ach and bowels, take Dr. Pierce's Pellets. One a dose.

Tracil boys and girls the actual facts of ife as soon as they are old enough to under stand them, and give them the sense of re sponsibility without saddening them.

A Stout Backbor

A Stout Backbone
Is as essential to physical health as to political consistency. For weakness of the buck, rheumarism, and disorders of the kidneys, the tonic and disettle action of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the one thing needful. The stomach is the mainstay of every other organ, and by invigorating the digestion with this preparation, the spinal column, and all its dependencies, are sympathetically strengthened. The dyspeptic and billous will find it a pure vegetable stimulant and tonic.

Tuz telephone is used on the continent of Europe to enable the guard of a train de-tained between stations to communicate to the nearest point for assistance.

Tnose who wish to practice economy should buy Carter's Little Liver Pills Forty pills in a vial; only one pill a dose.

In Finland's system of public achools manual training is universal. Boys learn to sow as well as girls, and girls also learn carpentry.

No specific for local skin troubles equals Jienn's Sulphur Soap. Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye, 50 cents.

LEAVE your business unduly and your

BETTER to die at the post of duty than to live elsewhere.

	_	_
THE GENERAL MA	ARK	ET	s.
KANSAS (TTY.	Jan	ne 17.
CATTLE-Shipping steers	8 20	68	4 10
Butcher steers	3 00	16	4 15
Native cows	2 00	8	3 (0
HOGS-Good to choice heavy.	4 60	46	4 1714
WHEAT-No. 2 red	72	10	7.5
No. 2 soft	76	8	78
CORN-No. t	25	65	26
OATS-No. 2	199	480	20
RYE-No. 2	87	6	39
FLOUR-Patents, per sack	2 20	Gs.	2 40
HAY-Baled	5 00	4	7 00
BUTTER-Choice creamery	. 12	8	15
CHEESE-Full cream	- 9	66	914
	0.27

EGGS-Choice	9	34	9%
BACON Hams	10	8	10%
Shoulders	5	64	6%
Sides	- 7	4
LARD	61416		636
POTATOES	20		40
ST. LOUIS.
CATTLE-Shipping steers	4 00	68	4.81
Butchers' steers	3 75	50	4 85
HOGS-Packing	4 66	65	4 40
SHEEP-Fair to choice		65	4 40
FLOUR-Choice	3.5)	HE	4 75
WHEAT-No. 2 red	83	49	8115
CORN-No.2	413	40	3116
OATS-No. 2	221	484	23
RYE-No. 2		95	119
BUTTER-Creamery		8	15
PORK	12 10	8	12 12%

PORK CHICAGO.

CATTLE—Shipping steets. 3 75 & 4 59
HOGS—Packing and shipping 4 09 @ 4 59
SHEEF—Fair to choice. 4 09 & 4 65
FLOUR—Winter wheat. 451 @ 5 40
WHEAT—No. 2 red. 89 @ 80%
CORN—No. 1. 32346 335
OATS—No. 2. 22 @ 2.34
RYE—No. 2 3844 394
BUTTER—Creamery 15 @ 17
PORK.

NEW YORK.
CATTLE—Common to prime. 4 00 @ 4 85
HOGS—Good to choice. 4 50 @ 4 30
FLOUR—Good to choice. 4 50 @ 4 30
FLOUR—Good to choice. 4 50 @ 4 30
FLOUR—Good to choice. 4 50 @ 4 30
FLOUR—Sood to choice. 4 50 @ 4 30
FLOUR—WHEAT—No. 2 red. 82 @ 1236
CORN—No. 2 41146 42
COATS—Western mixed. 25 @ 50
BUTTER—Creamery 13 @ 1756
PORK 13 25 & 13 20 CHICAGO.

A Fair Trial

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla will couvince any reason able person that it does possess great medicinal merit. We do not claim that very postile till complish a miracle, but we de know that nearly every bottle, taken according to directions, does produce positive benefit. Its peculiar curative power is shown by many romarkable curse.

"I was run down from close application to work, but was told I had malaris and was dosed with quinine, etc., which was useless. I decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and am now feeling strong and cheerful. I feel satisfied it will benefit any who, give it a fair trial." W. B. Bramtsis, 3il Spring Street, New York City.

Sold by all druggists. Il: six for E. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar

AGENTS 875 per month and expenses said say active team of events to self say pools WANTED prompts and live at heras. Belary paid prompts and expenses in advance. Pail partial results and expenses in advance. Pail partial results and expenses and Pail partial results and expenses and paid of the expenses when you are you at the paid of the p

DETECTIVES

Gregos, the Paradise of F Mild, equable climate, certain a crope. Bestfruit, grain, grass, s a the world. Full information fr Engraving and Electrotyping.

If you want engravings of Building Machinery, Portraits, Maps, Plats, or as thing in this line, write to us for sample and prices. Best work guaranteed at fa prices. Address

A. N. Kellogo Newspaper Co., Kausas City, Mo.

Two Monsons were lately on trial at Salt Lake City for a murder committed thirty years ago. The prosecuting attorney was a baby at the time the crime took place, and many of the jurors were now yet born.

We value everything 'n this world by comparison. Water and a have no sarrasic value, and yet Jay Gould, if famishing in the desert, would give all his wealth for a pint of the former, and think it cheep; hence, life and health are the standard of all values. If your system is full of hisprin you will be very miserable; a few doses of Shallenberger's Antidote will make you well and happy. Is one dollar a high price to pay!

First-two chicks from fifty eggs is the record that a Lenswee County (Mich.) man proudly presents in behalf of one of his batching bens.

Cax the sale of an inferior article con-stantly increase for 24 years? Dobbins Electric Scap has been on the market ever-since 1885, and is to-day the best and purse family scap made. Try it. Your greeer has it

THE man who finds trout in town that have been twenty-four hours on ice palata-ble will never be a conspicuous epicure.

Must not be confounded with common eath-artic or purgative pills. Carter's Little Liv-er Pills are entirely unlike them in every re-spect. One trial will prove their superiority, Excusu fakirs paint sparrows yellow and ell them for canaries.

2: JYCOB2 OIL

FOR STRAINS AND SPRAINS. NEW AND STRONG CASES.

Surprise. Beston, Mass., June 13, 1882. I wish to inform year of what I consider meet wear derful. Yesteckey I speaked my askide on a card-cines and at night could only step on my fast with greatest pair, got a bettle of BL Jacobs Oil and applied it freely, to-day I am about my beaution a small without feeling any interventance.

rained Ankle. Gersland, O., June 18, 1268.
Was in bed with strained ankle, und came; completely cared by St. Jacobs Off. Se return of L. HABLEY.

AT DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS. INE CHARLES A. VOGELER CO., Baltimore, Gained 15 Pounds. "I have been a great suffer orpid Liver and Dyspepsia ting I ate disagreed with m egan taking

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

By little niece had white ewel o such an extent that she was used to the bed for a long it fore than 30 pieces of bone or sut of her leg, and the doctors

Cabalogue is the most energists over effected to Mechanic fearwhes the largest variety of Tools. An examination emission will be a supplementation of the correctness. It contains an receipt of a contain for peckage. R. DEMMACKE, and receipt of a contain for peckage. R. DEMMACKE, and receipt of a contain for peckage. R. DEMMACKE, and receipt of a contain for peckage.

BOOK TO "MOTHERS" NAILED FREE. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Piso's Remedy for Catarrh is the Best, Easiest to Use, and Chespest. CATARRH

$75 to $250 A MONTH can be made work

ENGRAVING ELECTROTYPING.

GYPTIAN ROSE-BLOOM, a Classificht for the Comparison of the Compar

BRYANT & STRATTON Business & Short Hood's Sarsaparilla Louis No. Has $00 Students Tearly. Graduated are necessful in getting positions. Send for Circular. $5 TO SS A DAY. Samples worth $2.15
FREE, Lines not under horser feet. Write
BRANTER SAFFIT FRIS HOLDER CG., nelly, fink.
BYANE THIS PAPER every then yet with

BONANZA TO AGENTS SAMPLES FREE A. N. K. D 1244 WHEN WRITING TO ADVERTIMES PLEASE state that you saw the Advertisement in this paper.

Gentlemen AND Ladies