ANOTHER IDLE DAY.

RAIN INTERFERES WITH WORK AMONG THE RUINS IN THE CONEWAUGH VALLEY.

The People Crowd Around the Commissioners Depots and Receive Articles of Blasts of Dynamite at the Bridges.

JOHNSTOWN, June 14.—Rain is pouring down this morning and has effectually stopped work of all kinds in this stricken city where work should go ahead as rapidly as possible.

The crowds around the commissioners, which seem to increase with each day, are a mud-begged set.

In one way the rain today is regarded as a blessing, as the terrible stench from burning flesh, which was almost unbearable last night, is scarcely noticeable.

It has been decided to tear down all unsafe buildings in the town and burn the wreckage. This will be done as soon as the Philadelphia fire engines are on hand to protect property that is safe.

Only one body, a female baby, about a week's old, was rescued up to noon. It was badly decomposed and buried without identification.

A peculiar feature of the flood was that of 138 skeletons in Johnstown and surrounding towns but two escaped destruction.

Ready to Denounce Beaver. The drift at the stone bridge was burning in the afternoon, and the mass was fired on Thursday night.

THE AMENDMENT.

Mr. Montgomery's Views on Prohibition. Editor of the Intelligencer.—Permit me to say a few words through your columns by way of reply to your editorial in the last issue of your weekly paper, advising Democrats to vote against the proposed amendment.

As noted in Thursday's INTELLIGENCER, the board of pardons recommended the governor to respite James H. Jacobs, under sentence of death, for three months.
