SPACE is too limited to enumerate the prices Hopper & Murphy are selling their entire stock at now. If low prices will make business good we are determined to march in the lead. We earnestly invite you to examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere. Satisfaction guaranteed. dtf

MR. E. R. BLAINE has returned to Lexington after a week's sojourn at Washington City. The Louisville Times says: "He has been very quiet about the object of his visit, but the belief is that he is interested in the Collectorship of the Seventh district." The Times is about right as to the object of his visit.

THE 625 inmates of the penitentiary at Frankfort must be a remarkably orderly set of convicts, according to a statement from the Warden Captain E. H. Taylor, published in the Capital. This statement is that the prisoners' conduct was so good during a recent week that not a single one of them had to be punished.

THE Kentucky Court of Appeals recently made the following decision concerning collection of taxes by suit:

In the absence of express legislative authority, taxes cannot be recovered by suit, and as there is no statute in this State, save as to railroad companies, authorizing a suit to recover taxes, such a suit can not be maintained, even though there be no other adequate remedy.

St. Patrick's Parochial School.

A Remarkable Fact.
It seems indeed strange how goods can be sold so cheap at the "Bee Hive." Best calico only 5 cents per yard; white goods at 5 and 7½ cents, worth double; prices on all dress goods cut in half; towels at 10 and 15 cents, worth 20 and 30 cent. Positively everything at cost to reduce stock. All close buyers of dry goods should call at once at the "Bee Hive." See their large advertisement.

Tourists,
Whether on pleasure bent or business, should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels; preventing fevers, headaches, and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50 cent and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Notice
All parties having claims against the Democratic Executive Committee will please present them at once for payment, as I desire to close the matter as soon as possible. THOS. J. CHENOWETH, Chairman Democratic Executive Committee.
