FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. JOHNSTOWN, June 11.—General Hastings, arrived in Johnstown, Pa., on the morning of June 11. He was met by a delegation of the Chamber of Commerce to-day. It has been arranged that he will stay with him for a time, and William Flinn will also be here to give the benefit of his experience to the General, who will endeavor to contract with him for a portion of the work. As a result of the conference General Hastings to-night has posted the following announcement of the general organization as it will exist beginning with to-morrow morning: Chief of Operations, Johnstown—General D. H. Hastings, Adjutant General of Pennsylvania; Colonel Thomas J. Hudson, Chief of Artillery, N. G. P.; Lieutenant Colonel William J. Elliott, Acting Inspector General, N. G. It has been arranged that when General Hastings takes charge of Johnstown the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio freight stations will be the general depots for supplies, which will be hauled from there to 11 stations in the afflicted district. Each of these 11 stations will be in charge of a lieutenant and a sergeant. The general depots will also be district depots for those in their immediate vicinities. When the State begins the purchase of supplies, as it is now seen that it must do sooner or later, they will be purchased by the Commissary General and placed in the hands of Major Spangler, acting Commissary General. Lieutenant Dean, of the United States regular army, who has been detailed to inspect the summer encampment of the National Guard, and who offered his services for duty here, will have charge of the so-called Commissary General. Colonel Oey, clerk of the Military Board, who arrived here to-day from Harrisburg with two clerks from the Adjutant General's office, will have charge of the Accounts of the Distribution of supplies, and his accounts and those of the Commissary General must balance. Major Spangler will be assisted by Quartermaster Albro, of the Twenty-third Regiment, and Quartermaster Brown, of the Eighteenth. The general supply depot at the Pennsylvania freight station will be known as Post Commissary No. 1. Major Horn will be in charge of it. Major Singer will be in charge of Post Commissary No. 2, at the Baltimore and Ohio depot. Under Major Horn there will be seven district supply stations where relief will be given direct to the people, as follows: District No. 1 and 2, city, Major Mercer; District No. 3, Prospect Hill and Millville, Lieutenant Richardson, Quartermaster of the Ninth Regiment; District No. 4, East Conemaugh, Lieutenant Koons, of the First; District No. 5, Franklin borough, Lieutenant Moran, Ninth District No. 7, South Fork, Lieutenant Cox, of the Third. and the towns in the neighborhood are supplied from the St. Clair reservoir. Dr. Free says the water is pure and from the mountains. Dr. Poreh, the inspector at Cambria City, reports after a careful examination of the town, no sickness outside of a few cases of measles, tonsillitis and bronchitis, consequent from the exposure. The people are cleaning the streets and getting the mud out of their cellars very rapidly. At Morellville all the fire wood is being burned. The State board has ordered all boards and other lumber suitable for fences and building purposes to be picked out and piled up as soon as possible, or it will be promptly burned. Dr. Johnson, from Ninevah, reported that the Conemaugh Valley in that neighborhood has been cleaned up. Parties are still out searching for dead bodies. The hospital at Morellville was closed up to-night for lack of patients. Two patients died there from pneumonia. ISRAEL.
