Jimmy Surprised Them.

We gave the record of two days last week, but the result of the succeeding play for the week was something entirely unlooked for by the friends of both the players. That Reed should win the first game could not be counted a surprise, but that he should go right ahead and score win after win-complete surprise does not express it. It really dumfounds the sell? We want to reduce our stock of men's all sides, "what is the matter with Barker?" We all know what Earker has done in match playing; that he has been given the credit of being the best match player living: but Reed has never been looked on as such, and it proves now that he has never been properly cared for by any one when playing a match. This time his friends have carefully coached, advised and cared for him, and he now shows what is in him as to his knowledge of the game, and to his merits as being a match player. Every mem-ber of the Chicago club is his friend, and to the interest taken in him as advisers, particularly by Mesers. Hefter, Baker and Hopkins should credit be given for the unequaled score made, by him the past week.—Turf, Field and Farm.

Champion Green at Eric. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1

ERIE, PA, June 15 .- There is a great furor here in athletic circles by the appearance to-day of Charles Green, the champion catch-as-catch-can wrestler of England. Mr. Green

Thomas Cannon in particular, for $200 a side. He will train here. Dennis Gallagher, of Buf-falo, hus also come to make a match with Hugh Leonard, Muldoon's protege. Leonard wants to wrestle catch-as-catch-can or Graco-Roman and Gallagher wants a mixed match. ad Gallagher wants a mixed match.

steadfastness to their opinions. As the betting stands, Sullivan's backers in this city are giving odds of $1,000 to $800. Kilrain has, however, gained many followers by his quiet and modest way, and quite a number of members of the Board of Trade have pianted several large bets on the chances of his success, in many cases lay-ing even money. A special train will leave this city with Chas. E. Davis, Billy Lakeman, Mike McDonald and John Charles, of Baltimore, all of whom are great admirers of Kilrain. The Chicago contingent will leave on July 1.

Murphy is All Right.

Isaac Murphy is a remarkable jockey, and from present indications he is liable to con-tinue in the saddle as long as "old Bill" Hayward has been riding, which some people say is 40 years. It was fully written up by a number of turf writers, who have many ideas and few son. The facts are isaac has had as little trouble in reducing this season as he ever had, and he rode Los Angeles at 112 pounds during the week. With a few days of hot weather he could ride at 110 pounds without any extra effort. The cold, wet season has been against all the jockeys that have to reduce, and Mc-Laughlin especially has felt the need of good sweating weather. No matter how much walk-ing a jockey may do to bring on a sweat, if it is cold enough to dry the sweat in that closes the porces of the skin, and there is no reduc-tion, but a weakening sensation. McLaughlin can now ride at 120 pounds on a pinch, and if the weather would stay warm for a few days he could easily get down to 118 pounds, or pos-sibly to the 115 pounds that his contract with the Chicago Stable calls for.—Horseman.

Good Pigeon Flying.

The Pittsburg Homing Club sent several birds to Greenville, Ind., on Thursday last, to Mr. John Eagan, the gentlemanly telegraph Mr. John Eagan, the gentlemanly telegraph operator at that point, who kindly liberated six birds at 8:15 o'clock Friday morning, central standard time. The first bird to return was "Little Henry" on yesterday morning, belong-ing to the loft of Mr. William Hillebrecht, who resides at 754 Ward street, Oakland. The time made, of course, was not extraordinary, owing to the severe storms in most every sec-tion. The distance being 309 1-10 miles, air line. The same bird flew the same distance in July last, in more favorable weather, in the re-markable time of eight hours, averaging 1,133 yards per minute. This race is the fourth of a series which have taken place this season.
