The Work of Relieving the Necessities of Johnstown People

BEGUN BY TREASURER THOMPSON.

Railroad Contractors Sue for $46,000 They Consider Due Them.

ALL THE NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. JOHNSTOWN, July 18 .- Judge Cummin and Treasurer Thompson closed up their little bank to-day at 3:40 P. M., and left on the afternoon train for Cresson, where they will spend the night. During the day the Judge issued 165 checks calling for a sum total of $16,335, most of which checks were for $80 each, and but one was issued for the highest amount, $600. This was to a poor woman who had lost her husband in the flood. Of the 156 checks issued only 149 were cashed, $14.685, thus leaving 16 checks out calling for $1,650. All were told that they could get their money, but a number preferred not to lift it just now, and it will re-main in the hands of Treasurer Thompson subject to call.

WHERE RELIEF WAS GIVEN. The district paid to-day was one where the flood did not sweep away the bouses and the only damage of consequence was what was caused by the backwater. Not one resideat in this district was drowned except several persons who were caught while in other parts of the town.

To-morrow the Fourth ward will be paid, and here, too, comparatively few were drowned. The receipt of the money has put some life in the people and they begin to have some confidence that they will get something after all.

Judge Cummin and his clerks as well as Banker Thompson and his force, were kept very busy during the time they were at work, and the business was done in a systematic way and moved along without any greatly since the flood. Lots that formerly sold for $350 are now being anxiously picked up at $550. In the flooded districts there are but few lots for sale, and but little inquiry is being made. A number of the business houses on the park have been opened up, and they seem to be doing a thriving

The Board of Inquiry is registering names every day, but those who register now will not come in until a later distribution. Orders were given out to those in the Sixth ward

Mr. W. K. Marshall, one of the Western Union operators here, left for his home in Bellefonte to-night. He has been incapacitated for duty for several days owing to the unhealthfulness of the surroundings at the

One hundred of the two-story houses which Contractor Hughes has engaged to erect were allotted to-day, and Mr. Hughes will begin building them at once. He expects to complete about ten houses a day. They are much better than the Oklahomas which Governor Beaver had ordered, and will cost much less money. It is likely that the Red Cross Society will build a permanent general hospital here, a conference on the subject having been held by a number of the leading members of the society here to-day. There is considerable complaint that the lumber donated for the suf-ferers does not properly reach those for whom it was intended. The Committee on Valuables have quite a lot of articles in their possession yet that may be useful in identifying bodies.

THE KIRK FAMILY REUNION. A Host of Relatives Celebrate the Anniver

anry of Their Arrival. SHARON, July 18 .- Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kirk, who came to this country some 50 years ago from Scotland, celebrated the anniversary of their arrival here to-day. The scene of the semi-centenary celebration is at the pleasant homestead of the old couple in Sharon. Members of the family for the most part, direct descendants of the aged couple, to the number of 150 gathered on the lawn at 1 o'clock and sat down to a banquet prepared for the occasion, and afterward istened to the reading of the family history, and to vocal and instrumental selections and speeches by various members of the family. A special car over the Erie and Pittsburg road this morning brought nearly 100 relatives from Pittsburg and Allegheny, among them being Arthur J. Kirk, Jr., of Pittsburg, and Mrs. Margaret Tribby, of Allegheny, besides a number of others from Philadelphia, Bradford, Parkersburg, W. Va., and Iowa. Although 86 and 85 years of age, respectively, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk are yet in the active possession of their faculties and seem good for a number of years of life.

BENFORD ON JOHNSTOWN. Dissatisfaction Not General and Hundreds of Bodies Not Recovered. CHAMBERSBURG, July 18 .- Frank Ben-Johnstown, which was completely washed away in the flood, was in Chambersburg today. He says that the dissatisfaction with the Flood Commission at Johnstown is not general and that he believes the commission is doing its duty faithfully. He thinks there is a disposition on the part of some to exaggerate their losses and the commiss must scan these claims closely. Mr. Ben-ford thinks there are still hundreds of bodies buried in the debris about town.

A SUIT FOR $46,000.

Railroad Contractors Who Think a Railrend Owes Them That Much. CHAMBERSBURG, PA., July 18 .- Suiwas entered here to-day by Kellar & Crossan, of Lancaster, Pa., against the Baltimore and Harrisburg Railway Company to recover $46,000, claimed to be due the plaintiffs, who were the contractors for building the western extension of the road to a point on the main line of the Western Marvland road near Blue Ridge Summit. The branch was finished in June, but the managers and contractors have been unable to agree as to the amount due upon the con-

A Pay Streak Low Down. WASHINGTON, PA., July 18 .- When considerably below the place in the sand where the oil has been got in other wells in that neighborhood the Gantz-Brownlee struck a fat pay streak and for the past few hours has been making a production of 11 barrels an hour.

Drowned While Bathing. PARKERSBURG, July 18. - Joseph Rogers, son of George Rogers, of Sandyville, was drowned vesterday while bathing with a crowd of boys in the creek. The body was recovered before life was extinct, but all efforts to resuscitate him failed.

A Refugee From Dixmont Found. GREENSBURG, July 18 .- Tim Bacon, who was sent from this county to Dixmont eight

DOING BUSINESS AGAIN. The Chartlers Valley Rolling Mill Resume

Operations-Mrs. Brown Better. MANSFIELD VALLEY, PA., July 18 .-The Chartiers Rolling Mill, in Chartiers borough, which has been closed two weeks for repairs, has resumed with a full force of 260 men. The mill has only been closed two weeks per year for five years, and no strikes have occurred and any dissatisfactions were promptly and amicably settled.

Mrs. Jane W. Brown, widow of Colonel
Mansfield W. Brown, who was many years ago a Pittsburg plow manufacturer, has been ill for several weeks with typhoid fever, but is now recovering. Mrs. Brown is a sister of the Hays brothers, of Pitte

The family of William J. Hartz, of Hei delberg, Pa., one mile southwest of Mans-field, who were poisoned last week, are now recovering. The family ate canned beef and were for a time in a precarious condi-tion, but Dr. Strodes, of the Allegheny County Home, thinks they will ultimatel recover.

No tiding have yet been heard from William Neal, of North Mansfield, who mysteriously disappeared some time ago with his months' pay. He had his hand hurt on Tuesday and went to see his mother at Red Bank on the Allegheny Valley Railroad. He left there the following morning and has not been heard from. His family are anxious about him. He has a wife and three children in Mansfield and was a sober and industrious man.

The Town Councils of Mansfield and Chartiers boroughs have held a joint meeting to discuss the feasibility of erecting water works at the public expense and pay for them inside of 20 years. The Councils visited Shurpsburg, Etna, Braddock and the relative to the council of the council other places to get some pointers, and the prospects are for a good united effort to se-cure the works. The scheme will cost

BURGLARS AT WARREN.

Cracksmen Frightened Away and One Them Hit-Robbed in an Altercation.

WARREN, O., July 18 .- Cracksmen were surprised by the police early this morning while attempting to open the safe of Lamb while attempting to open the sale of Lamb Bros.' store. A running fire was kept up between officers and burglars, but no arrests were made. One of the robbers was hit and fell, but was carried away by his pals.

Ed. O. Jones, wholesale liquor dealer from Youngstown, got into an altercation in a saloon here last night, and was relieved of his pocketbook, containing $130 and several hundred dollars in checks and notes. Later D. W. McAvoy, a well-known fakir and gambler, was discovered remov-fakir and gambler, was discovered remov-ing the plunder from behind a whisky bar-rel. He was arrested and held on the charge of grand larceny.

Smallpox in Eric County.

ERIE, July 18 .- Waterford is greatly agitated by the existence of a case of smallpox in the vicinity. The community has John Ackerly, who was discharged from the Denver, Col., pesthouse a couple of weeks ago and came home at once. Denis Cronin is the first victim, and it is feared that more will follow.

Fatally Injured by the Limited. LIMA, O., July 18.-The limited westbound express on the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne and Chicago demolished a horse and buggy at Scott's crossing, west of this city. Mrs. Nicholas Stewart and grandson, 12 years of age, occupants of the vehicle, were thrown 25 feet, and both were fatally injured. The horse became unmanageable, which caused the resident Small-Pox at Canousburg. CANONSBURG, July 18 .- Owen Mahon, an oil well driller of this place, became suddenly sick and was a day or two ago taken to the Muncipal Hospital for treat ment. Since his arrival there his sickness has developed into small-pex. He is not expected to recover.

COLORADO OFFICIALS IN TROUBLE. Indicted by a Grand Jury on the Charge of Defrauding the State. DENVER, July 18 .- The Criminal Court grand jury, which has been investigating the charges of corruption made against State officials in connection with the purchase of supplies and furniture for the use of the last General Assembly, adjourned late last night. In their report they severely criticised the actions of the officials charged with the offenses. To-day warrants were issued for the arrest of Secretary of State James Rice, Sheriff Weber and his partner, James Rice, Sheriff Weber and his partner, George H. Graham, of the furniture house of Graham & Weber, who furnished the legislative rooms; W. H. Lawrence & Co., who supplied the Assembly with stationery; State Printers Collier & Cleveland, all being charged with conspiracy to defraud the State. Secretary Rice and Sberiff Weber are now in the East, and could not be served with warrants. Others, however, were arrested; gave bail in sums ranging from $1,000 to $1,500.

BLAINE WILL NOT RESIGN.

But Will Not be in Washington Before Octo ber-Harrison to Go to Sea. WASHINGTON, July 18 .- Walker Blaine said to-day that there was not the slightest ford, proprietor of the Hurlbut House, at | foundation for the story of his father's resignation, nor for the report that he contemplated resigning. Secretary Blaine, in all probability, with not return to Washington before the 1st of October, when he expects to oc-cupy his new residence on Madison place, opposite Lafayette square, the old Seward

Mr. Walker Blaine will have an interview with President Harrison before the latter leaves for Deer Park, to consult with him about his proposed visit to Bar Harbor in August. It is among the probabilities that the President will have a vessel at New York and make the trip by sea for the benefit accruing from an ocean voyage.
