NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 4.—Two important events commemorative of the Johnstown flood took place in this city today.

The first event was the dedication and throwing open of the Conemaugh Valley Memorial Hospital.

The address was made by General D. H. Hastings, who spoke of the disaster as the final act of the great drama of death and resurrection.

In the evening a large mass meeting of citizens was held at the great hall of the city.

The Resolutions of Gratitudes. At this mass meeting H. W. Storey, President of the Board of Trade and Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented the following:

WHEREAS, On the 23rd day of May, 1889, this city of Johnstown and the valley of the Conemaugh suffered a sudden calamity which is unparalleled in its character and terrible in its consequences that it challenged the instant attention of the civilized world.

Resolved, That an appropriate and enduring memorial of the world's charity to Johnstown, the people of the Conemaugh valley, its corporations and individuals, will constitute their tribute of gratitude.
